Honble Mr. Gantun C. S. I

For orders whether Mr. Horne should be granted the allowance of Rs 243.14.3 or Rs 541-6-2 for the period he performed the double duties of Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt Revenue and Dy. Commissioner Southern Division.

CS.
Mr. Horne's performance of the duties of Dy. Commr. Southern Division must have been more or less nominal. I am unable to find any special reasons, & he communicated to the Govt. of India, why he should draw the 541.6.2. I think that the lower allowance which raises his total pay from 1082 R to 1500 is sufficient & is over drawn what he draws as Dy. Commr.

20/9/92
I don't think it has been to the Govt.
Dy. Commr. W. Horne's hand to - Mr. Gantun might have been able.

Subject.

Requesting sanction of Govt. to extra allowances for Mr.
Home for holding charge of the office of the Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue and Deputy Commissioner of Salt and Akari Revenue, Southern Div.

Submitted to Government. Mr. W.O. Home performed the duties of Deputy Commissioner, Southern Division in addition to those of Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Akari and Separate Revenue from the forenoon of 5th to the forenoon of 29th July '92. This case falls under Article 184 of the Civil Service Regulation under which the salary admissible to him for the duties of Secretary is Rs 1256. 1. 9 per mensem and that for the duties of Deputy Commissioner Rs 541. 6. 2 per mensem being half the salary which he would receive if he officiated in that appointment alone, but as the aggregate salary for the two appointments exceeds Rs 1500 the pay of the Secretary which is the more highly paid of the two appointments, his allowances for the office of Deputy Commissioner should be limited to Rs 243. 14. 3 per mensem. If however Government consider this sum to be insufficient, it may grant him Rs 541. 6. 2 per mensem provided the declaration prescribed in Rule 1 to Article 184 is made and communicated to the Government of India as the extra charge falls upon Imperial Revenues.

the 29th idem -

4. The Board therefore, recommends that under Article 184, Civil Service Regulations, Mr.
Horne be granted the allowances due for holding the two appointments. The restriction laid down in Article 186, Civil Service Regulations, do not apply to Mr. Horne's case as the duties do not appertain to one and the same Office as given in the examples quoted. The most that can be said is that they appertain to the same Department, but they differ widely, the one appointment being executive and the other purely administrative, and the additional labour and responsibility entailed by the double charge is considerable.

Resolution.

In Notification No 249 dated 28th June 1892, Government appointed Mr. Horne, Acting Secretary to the Commissioner of Separate Revenue, and, as Mr. Elger was required to take up the duties of Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, immediately Mr. Horne was directed to come to Madras and relieve him.

2. As Mr. Elwin had been selected to succeed Mr. Horne as Deputy Commissioner, the latter officer was obliged to retain the charge of the Deputy Commissionership, Southern Division, in addition to his duties as Secretary.

3. Mr. Elwin's illness and the necessity for
