FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read again Government Resolution No. 1079, dated 24th March 1891.

RESOLUTION.—In paragraph 3 of their Resolution No. 2544, dated 23rd May 1890, embodied in the preamble of Government Resolution No. 2502, dated 24th July 1890, the Government of India observed that the rules then in force generally, on the subject of the supply of clothing to messengers, would continue to apply to the supply of liveries the cost of which was Imperial. His Excellency the Governor in Council is accordingly pleased to direct in modification of the orders contained in the concluding sentence of paragraph 11 of Government Resolution No. 1079, dated 24th March 1891, that woollen cloth may be supplied by the Superintendent of Stationery for the coats of peons on establishments the cost of which is Imperial, when under existing orders it has heretofore been supplied. This order however is intended only for the convenience of Imperial establishments and is not to be understood as precluding any other arrangements which may be made for the supply of clothing to peons on such establishments.

A reference to the Government of India regarding officers of the Customs, Salt and Opium Departments will be made from this Department. In the absence of orders from that Government no woollens should be supplied by the Superintendent of Stationery in future, except in cases in which a biennial supply has hitherto been obtained and is either due now or will be due before the 1st July next, in which cases the supply due may be made as heretofore.

12. The orders issued above must be understood to refer to permanent peons alone. Clothing cannot ordinarily be supplied to temporary peons, unless there is a prospect of the continuance of their employment for two years, the period for which the coats supplied are expected to last, in which case special sanction should be obtained to their being treated, for the purposes of these rules, on the same footing as permanent peons.

13. The Superintendent of Stationery and the Accountant General should be requested to continue to scrutinize Secretariat indents like other indents and not to treat correspondence connected therewith as correspondence with Government unless orders are issued from the Financial Department which exercises control in this matter.

14. Government in the Financial Department reserve power to modify from time to time the orders now passed, and as the information upon which it is found necessary to pass orders is in many cases not very complete, some modifications, hereafter, will doubtless be found necessary.

Letter from the Surgeon General with the Government of Bombay, No. 1349, dated 24th February 1891—Requesting sanction to the supply of woollen cloth required for clothing the peon at the Albless Hospital.

RESOLUTION.—After careful consideration the Governor in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the supply of clothing to peons and their petty officers.

2. Woollen cloth sufficient for one long coat should as hitherto be supplied biennially on indent to heads of offices on account of each of the peons authorized to receive clothing at Government expense. The cloth should, in accordance with the proposal of the Superintendent of Stationery sanctioned in Government Resolution No. 4242, dated 31st December 1890, be of a somewhat better description than that supplied recently, about which many complaints have been made.

3. To cover the cost of making up the coats and making any other small local purchases of clothing that may be thought necessary the heads of offices in question should be allowed a biennial grant of Rs. 4½ for each peon and of Rs. 9 for each petty officer in the mofussil, and of Rs. 12 for each peon and Rs. 20 for each petty officer in Bombay City. These sums should be considered the maxima which can ordinarily be allowed to be spent. Savings should be effected when possible, and in order that officers may have an incentive to effect such savings Government think it desirable to continue the present arrangement under which this kind of expenditure is met from the contract grants of officers who possess such grants: though at the same time, in order to secure that, as desired by the Government of India, the charges shall be subject to audit, Government are pleased to direct that sub-vouchers for the various items of expenditure incurred shall be annexed to the ordinary contract grant bills or vouchers.

4. The officers to whose peons and petty officers these orders apply are as follows.

(1.) District Collectors in their capacity as such and also as District Magistrates, District Registrars and Political Agents; also Assistant and Deputy Collectors. The Collector of Bombay in his capacity also as Superintendent of Stamps and Stationery and Collector of A'bkári. The Collector of Income Tax, Bombay.

(2.) District, Joint and Assistant Judges, and Small Cause Court Judges; Presidency Magistrates; Cantonment and City Magistrates; the Collector of Income Tax, Poona; the Coroner and Sheriff, Bombay; the Remembrancer of Legal Affairs.

(3.) Political Agents and Superintendents on Provincial establishments, and their Assistants.

(4.) Officers of the Revenue Survey Department of and above the rank of Assistant Superintendent.

(5.) The Inspector General of Registration, Stamps and Prisons; Inspectors of Registration and Stamps and of Village Registration.

(6.) The Director of Land Records and Agriculture; District Inspectors of the Agricultural Department; the Superintendents of Farms; the Principal of the Veterinary College, Parel; and the Superintendent of Horse-Breeding Operations.

(7.) The Director of Public Instruction; Educational and Deputy Educational Inspectors; the Principals of the Elphinstone and Deccan Colleges, of the College of Science, Poona, and of Training Colleges, and of the Elphinstone High School.

(8.) The Surgeon General and Sanitary Commissioner; Civil Surgeons; Deputy Sanitary Commissioners and the Superintendent of Vaccination, Western Gujarát Circle; the Physician of the European General Hospital; the Senior Medical Officer, Jamsedji Jijibhai Hospital; the Principal, Grant Medical College; the Surgeon, Cawasji Jehangir Ophthalmic Hospital; and the First Physician, Kama Hospital as regards both the Kama and Albless Hospitals.

(9.) Officers of the Public Works Department of and above the rank of Assistant Engineer whose cost is wholly or partly Provincial.

(10.) The following miscellaneous officers:—

The Talukdári Settlement Officer.

The Inspector General of Police.

The Superintendent of the Bombay Lunatic Asylum.

The Superintendent of the Government Central Press.

The Meteorological Reporter for Western India.

The Inspectors of Factories and Steam Boilers, Bombay.

The Health Officer of the Port of Bombay.

The Reporter on the Native Press.

The Shipping Master, Bombay.

The Secretary to the Civil and Military Examination Committee.

5. The peons of

Members of Council,

the High Court,

Secretaries to Government,

Commissioners, including the Commissioner and Judicial Commissioner in Sind, and the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, Opium and A'bkári, should be treated specially, and allowed Rs. 20 biennially, including the cost of cloth, and their petty officers should similarly be allowed Rs. 60 as heretofore. The mukádam of the Secretariat should be considered a petty officer of peons. The Examiner of Public Works Accounts and the Oriental Translator should be regarded as attached to the Public Works Department and the Political Department respectively of the Secretariat for the purposes of these rules.

6. The hamáls of the Secretariat and Record offices, the faráshes of Commissioners and the boatmen on the boat establishment of the Commissioner in Sind should be allowed Rs. 4 each per annum for the purchase of cheap cotton clothing. The case of Jail warders and peons employed in Jails will be separately considered.

7. The peons of Mámlatdárs have not hitherto been supplied with clothing: but, though there is much truth in the complaints made by District officers regarding the shabby attire of most of these servants, the Governor in Council does not consider it desirable to include them in the list given in paragraph 4 above. They may, however, be allowed Rs. 4 annually each for the purchase of cheap cotton clothing, as in the case of the hamáls and faráshes mentioned above, provided that Collectors find it possible to meet the expenditure without an increase to their present contract grants.

8. It appears that the peons of some Head Masters of High Schools and of some Assistant Deputy Educational Inspectors are at present supplied with clothing at Government expense. The Educational Department should be asked whether there is any reason for continuing the existing practice, and if so whether the peons of all officers of the same class should not be treated alike. It should also be requested to state whether there is any special reason for continuing the supply of clothing at Government expense to the peons of the Deputy Educational Inspectors, Maráthi and Gujaráthi Schools, Bombay, and the Perry Professor of Jurisprudence. The Judicial Department should be asked whether there is any reason to continue the supply of clothing at Government expense to peons employed by the Reporter to the High Court and the Government Pleader, High Court.

9. It also appears that the peons of the Superintendent of Mahábaleshvar, of the Local Fund Account Offices at Násik and Broach, and of the President of the District Local Board in the Khándesh, Kaira and Násik Districts are similarly supplied with clothing at Government expense. This should be discontinued. The clothing should be purchased at the cost of the Station Fund in the first case and in the other cases at the cost of the Local Funds concerned. No orders of Government on the subject appear necessary.

10. The orders of the Government of India relate only to Provincial establishments. It is presumed however that they are intended to refer also to establishments such as those in the Forest, Stamps, Registration, A'bkári and Public Works Departments, the cost of which is partly Provincial and partly Imperial while the control is Provincial; and the list given above has been prepared on this assumption. The Government of India should, however, be informed of the action taken. As regards the Forest Department, the peons of which have not been included in the list, it appears to Government that these peons, who are or should be considered to be interchangeable with guards, should come under the same clothing rules as are applicable to the latter, unless the Conservators can point out any serious objection to the adoption of this course.

11. This Government have not been granted power to make rules for wholly Imperial establishments. Some of these, such as the Accountant General's Office, the Post Office, the Telegraph Department and the Mint, are not directly under the orders of this Government and the officers concerned should be left to take any steps they think proper for obtaining the sanction of the Government of India to the purchase of clothing for their peons. The cases of others, such as the Political Resident, Aden, Marine, Military and Ecclesiastical officers, and the officers of the Public Works Department, Railway, should be dealt with, if necessary, and in communication with the Government of India, by the Departments of the Secretariat concerned.

A reference to the Government of India regarding officers of the Customs, Salt and Opium Departments will be made from this Department. In the absence of orders from that Government no woollens should be supplied by the Superintendent of Stationery in future, except in cases in which a biennial supply has hitherto been obtained and is either due now or will be due before the 1st July next, in which cases the supply due may be made as heretofore.

12. The orders issued above must be understood to refer to permanent peons alone. Clothing cannot ordinarily be supplied to temporary peons, unless there is a prospect of the continuance of their employment for two years, the period for which the coats supplied are expected to last, in which case special sanction should be obtained to their being treated, for the purposes of these rules, on the same footing as permanent peons.

13. The Superintendent of Stationery and the Accountant General should be requested to continue to scrutinize Secretariat indents like other indents and not to treat correspondence connected therewith as correspondence with Government unless orders are issued from the Financial Department which exercises control in this matter.

14. Government in the Financial Department reserve power to modify from time to time the orders now passed, and as the information upon which it is found necessary to pass orders is in many cases not very complete, some modifications, hereafter, will doubtless be found necessary.

READ the following Resolution by the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 2544, dated the 23rd of May 1890 :—

In the Resolution of the Government of India in the Finance Department, No. 613, dated 28th January 1874, rules were laid down regarding the supply of liveries to messengers employed in Government offices. The offices of which the messengers should be entitled to liveries, the frequency with which liveries could be supplied, and the limit of cost of liveries were stated in those rules. The Governor-General in Council has now decided that it is expedient to entrust to Local Governments discretion to lay down rules regarding the supply of liveries the cost of which is Provincial, on the understanding that the several Local Governments will, by the orders they issue on the subject, effectually prevent the occurrence of any abuses such as the rules hitherto enforced by the Government of India were designed to prevent.

2. Accordingly, the Governor-General in Council has decided that the rules in the Resolution quoted above and subsequent amending or explanatory orders shall no longer apply to liveries the cost of which is Provincial. Each Local Government should issue rules (1) naming the offices the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries ; (2) stating the frequency with which each messenger of those offices may be supplied with liveries ; and (3) laying down maximum limits for the cost of each livery. The rules should require the officers who are allowed to supply liveries to their messengers to show the total charges on account of each livery, or each set of liveries, in a form which will enable the Account Office to check the expenditure, and to see that the rules laid down are duly observed.
3. The rules on the subject hitherto in force generally will continue to apply to the supply of liveries in offices the cost of which is Imperial. But if it is considered that any Imperial offices in any Province should be in this matter subject to the rules prescribed by the Local Government for Provincial offices, a representation should be made by the Local Government stating the rules issued by it, and the Imperial offices to which it is proposed to extend them.

RESOLUTION.—In accordance with the above orders His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the supply, at the public expense, of liveries to messengers employed on Provincial establishments in the Punjab :—

I.—The following table shows the establishments the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries at the public expense, the frequency with which liveries may be supplied, and the maximum limit of cost fixed for each livery. The belt and badge ordinarily worn by messengers are not included in the term "livery":—

1	2	3	4
Name of Office.	Frequency with which messengers may be supplied with liveries.	Maximum limit of cost.	REMARKS.
Civil Secretariat ...	Every second year...	Rs.
Chief Court ...	Ditto ...

Cantonment Magistrates ...	Ditto ...

II.—The amount prescribed in column 3 of the above table may be spent in such manner as may seem most advisable so long as the money limit is not exceeded: longcloth chapkans can for example be treated as liveries.

III.—Bills for expenditure on liveries should be accompanied by a statement in the following form:—

Name of Office.	Number of messengers entitled to liveries.	Date on which liveries were last supplied and number supplied, with cost.	Number of liveries now charged for.	Rate per livery.	Total cost.
				Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.

IV.—Liveries will continue to be supplied to messengers on the staff of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor according to existing arrangements.

The arrangements made for the supply of liveries to messengers in the office of the Conservator of Forests, Punjab, will also continue in force.

V.—The above orders do not apply to the Public Works Department, which will issue its own rules.

2. Budget provision may be made in future for liveries at the rates sanctioned in the table published above. No expenditure should be incurred during the current year unless it can be met from savings in the existing grant.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be forwarded to all Heads of Departments for information and guidance and for issue of orders to subordinate officers where necessary.

Replies to the Government orders cited above, on the subject of the supply of warm clothing to orderly peons, and the cost per suit.

OBSERVATIONS.—The Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Commissioner has recently had under consideration the advisability of laying down definite rules for the supply of warm clothing to orderly peons attached to the offices of Heads of Departments, Commissioners of Divisions, Magistrates of Districts, and Judicial Officers. Hitherto uniformity has not been observed in regard either to the number of peons supplied with warm clothing, to the frequency of supply, or to the cost per suit. In some cases the men have been left to provide themselves with warm clothing; while elsewhere menials other than orderly peons (such as farrashes, daftries, khalassis and chaukidars) have been supplied miscellaneously at the public cost. The Government of India has recently vested Local Governments with powers for laying down rules regulating these matters; and it has been decided that the messengers (orderly peons only) of the public offices shown in Appendix A of this Resolution may be supplied with warm clothing every second year—the number of peons to be supplied, and the rates of cost, being specified therein. When warm clothing is supplied in future, a statement in the form of Appendix B of this Resolution should be attached to the contingent bill in which the charge occurs, for the information of the Accounts Department.

2. In the Kumaun Division, the circumstances of which are exceptional, the Revenue and Judicial Department peons will continue to receive warm clothing every second year, at a cost of Rs. 8-4-0 per suit, including all accessories. As the case of the Dehra Dún District is in some respects similar to that of the Kumaun Division, peons of the Revenue and Judicial Departments will continue to be supplied with warm clothing every second year, at a cost of Rs. 7 per suit, including all accessories.

3. In cases in which the number of peons on any establishment, who are under this Resolution to be supplied with warm clothing, is less than the total number of peons on the establishment, it is left to the controlling officer to decide which of the peons are to receive clothing: on the understanding that as far as possible the roster shall be so arranged as to allow every peon to get the benefit of the privilege in turn.

ORDER.—Ordered that copies of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the several officers concerned, for information and guidance.

Ordered, that a copy of the Resolution be also forwarded to the Accountant-General, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, for information and guidance.

RESOLUTION.

MISCELLANEOUS (GENERAL) DEPARTMENT.

Dated Allahabad, the 9th April 1891.

READ—

The following Resolutions by the Government of India, in the Department of Finance and Commerce, relative to the supply of liveries to messengers on public establishments:—

No. 613, dated 28th January 1874;

No. 1384, dated 27th February 1875;

No. 1143, dated 29th June 1878;

No. 2544, dated 23rd May 1890;

and the following orders by this Government:—

No. 281A, dated 26th February 1874;

No. 1421A, dated 26th November 1875.

OBSERVATIONS.—By Resolution No. 2544, dated 23rd May 1890, the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to vest in the Local Government of these Provinces authority to lay down rules (a) specifying the public offices the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries at the public cost, (b) prescribing the maximum limits of expenditure, and (c) fixing the frequency with which such liveries may be supplied. In exercise of this authority, the Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Commissioner has decided that the messengers of the public offices shown in the appended Statement A may be supplied with liveries, subject to the times, and the limits of costs, mentioned therein. When liveries are supplied under these orders, a statement in Form B annexed should be attached to the contingent bill in which the charge occurs, for the information of the Account Department.

2. The above orders do not involve any material change in existing arrangements, nor do they affect the instructions which from time to time have been, or may hereafter be, issued authorizing the supply of warm clothing—as distinguished from liveries—to the menial servants of certain offices.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be forwarded to—

The Secretaries to this Government in the Public Works Department;

The Registrar, High Court, North-Western Provinces;

The Judicial Commissioner of Oudh;

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, North-Western Provinces and Oudh;

The Private Secretary to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Commissioner;

and to the Accountant-General, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, for information and guidance.

By order, &c.,

Calling for a report from Heads of Departments regarding the liveries supplied at the expense of the State to the menial servants on the establishment.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., dated 13th June 1890, No. 420, Financial.

Read—the following Resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, Establishments, &c.—Liveries), dated Simla, the 23rd May 1890, No. 2544 :—

In the Resolution of the Government of India, in the Finance Department, No. 613, dated 28th January 1874, rules were laid down regarding the supply of liveries to messengers employed in Government offices. The offices of which the messengers should be entitled to liveries, the frequency with which liveries could be supplied, and the limit of cost of liveries, were stated in those rules. The Governor-General in Council has now decided that it is expedient to entrust to Local Governments discretion to lay down rules regarding the supply of liveries the cost of which is Provincial on the understanding that the several Local Governments will, by the orders they issue on the subject, effectually prevent the occurrence of any abuses such as the rules hitherto enforced by the Government of India were designed to prevent.

2. Accordingly, the Governor-General in Council has decided that the rules in the resolution quoted above and subsequent amending or explanatory orders shall no longer apply to liveries the cost of which is Provincial. Each Local Government should issue rules (1) naming the offices the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries; (2) stating the frequency with which each messenger of those offices may be supplied with liveries; and (3) laying down maximum limits for the cost of each livery. The rules should require the officers who are allowed to supply liveries to their messengers to show the total charges on account of each livery, or each set of liveries, in a form which will enable the Account office to check the expenditure, and to see that the rules laid down are duly observed.

3. The rules on the subject hitherto in force generally will continue to apply to the supply of liveries in offices the cost of which is Imperial. But if it is considered that any Imperial offices in any province should be in this matter subject to the rules prescribed by the Local Government for Provincial offices, a representation should be made by the Local Government stating the rules issued by it, and the Imperial offices to which it is proposed to extend them.

Order—

Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, and to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers.

Sir,
I beg most respectfully to bring to your notice that for several years
the work for supplying warm clothing belonging to the several departments of the Government Office was intrusted to me, and I am earnestly desirous that I may not be deprived of this work, now that there is to be added to your department a supply of warm clothing, and that my past services will not be overlooked and the work given to me. I have always rendered satisfaction, and no complaint has been ever brought against me, for which set of my duties I shall always be grateful.
I am very glad to hear of an improvement
with the last supply of clothing.
You will find the charges moderate.

tear is therefore very slight.

Warm Clothing

The present allowance

articles of warm clothing for a season is Rs: 10. The following amounts were actually paid by the Military Dept for

The figures are somewhat startling:-

small deficiency is fully accounted for

penditure last year
is not abnormal the totals for the two preceding years are given:-

It is submitted to the foregoing facts
that it is necessary

Copies of the Rules
issued by Bengal,
M. W. I., Panjab and Bombay have been obtained and are submitted. In the M. W. I. & Panjab the rates for ^{of the Secret} ~~peons~~ is the same - viz - Rs. 20 bi-allows Rs. 60 for each Soudar (Duffadar

Rs. 45, every second year.

It would be advisable
to get rates for each separate item of clothing

so that it would not be necessary to purchase

proposing a rule

There can be no doubt that Genl. H. & his have been most extravagant and that there has been a great deal of cheating about the clothing.

The uniform supplied for the Hills is of bad material, the seams are very careless with it and I very strongly suspect that they keep their new suits & sell them and pass off upon us the old suits.

How came it that there was such a large increase in the "dress peons" and when did it occur?

As regards the white clothing I don't see what the C in C's establishment wants with it at all excepting on time. The present system of supply is absurd as they remain up here the greater part of the year, being I am the plains for only two or three months.

However they C in C's establishment is so large item. I think though that the supply of white clothing both ought to be made once in three years.

I don't see what the Gollah in the C's Office wants with a dress uniform and I don't see either why the hoochie should be got up in the way in which he is.

The list attached to members of Council (4 chobdars & 10 peons) must be in uniform so must the Council District and the Daffadar. I have more than once doubted the necessity for the daffadar for the C.S. at all. I think Council clerks ought to do the work
in addition to his own.

How are the 12 dress peons distributed?

Is the supply annual or biennial. being whether one or another. Some one in each of the should be made responsible for this and the person who fails to be in any article issued to him should be made to pay for it. I feel sure that there is a regular system of selling clothes and this can only be put a stop to by making the whole of the men liable for it.

This should be one of the rules laid down.

I consider that once in three years is as regards white clothing issued enough as the uniform ought to be worn only when on duty. It is doubtful whether it ought to be given more frequently than once in four years with actual defacements made up on production of the article and proof that it is worn out.

As regards warm clothing - whether attender or making should in future have scarlet, blue cloth will do just as well and is much cheaper.
I think too that scarlet for working is unsuitable for.

How long are the turbans supposed to last? and how comes it that there are 29 persons but that there are purchased 41 for 1903 41 for 1904 & 36 turbans also 41 turbans - I should like to know the distribution of all these.
What the plan for and what the necessary for annual issue?
My plan is that each man have
them a year - and the material
should be the same as the cloth.

The Attenders & Messengers
do not get scarlet - they get a blue coat & trousers.

Notes

Two years - but 3 or 4 had to be renewed this year as last year's issues were not serviceable.

The 6 outriggers, messengers, clerks, etc.
attenders etc. all receive these articles, not only the messengers.

They have sufficient to make only one coat & probably wear it right thru the year. The 6 outriggers the plan is that each man have
them a year - and the material
should be the same as the cloth.

It is submitted that a comparison could not well be made. The size of office, the climate, prices etc. are all different. Also the pay of the staff.

I am unable to suggest. Perhaps if some definite proposals are formulated in the Chief Secy's office Secretaries might be consulted & a course avoided.

The high expenditure for warm clothing
has been going on ever since Genl. K.H.
had the handling of it.

I think that it would be desirable to obtain from Bombay and Simla particulars of what the people get, how heavy wear
"draps" which it costs and how long it lasts. It is quite possible that they to outrun the constable.

It would no doubt be economical to have all the clothing supplied by one and the same contractor. Doing this would however be equivalent to supply by one Dept. as an agreement would have to be made with that contractor for the establishment as a whole and this could be made by each Dept. separately.

The style of clothing is no doubt really but a question whether it is not too expensive. If the panel with the monogram was made of better stuff than it is it would be doubtless last better than it does. I doubt whether the different colors specified by Genl. K.H. are economical since only the blue and light blue trade directly. It would be better to have one color and darker for lining letters.
I doubt whether if each man had the black coat proposed it would ever be used. The messengers are as a rule a set of coats and trousers and underclothing.

If a committee is formed of whom would we suppose that it should be composed I think agree that in formation such as suggested in the concluding portion of the note should be called for from each Dept. of the Secy. In the mean time the necessary information

After the draft has been settled to my satisfaction I will ask other Ambassadors to introduce it also. I feel sure that the result will be a marked economy as I have seen at least half a dozen of W.B. Moore's pieces cut being worn by boys and Office Order.

The following instructions are issued for the guidance of all menial servants who receive uniform and clothing from the Chief Secretariat.

The sale of any article of uniform or clothing issued at the expense of Govt. is absolutely prohibited. Any one infringing this rule will be severely dealt with.

Uniform, whether cotton or cloth, is to be worn only when on duty.

A receipt will be taken by the Cash-keeper for every article of uniform or clothing issued and each recipient will be held personally responsible for every article issued to him.

On proceeding to the Hills all articles of white clothing, and on returning from the hills, all articles of warm clothing, will be returned to the charge of the Cash-keeper. Any damage which cannot be fairly attributed to ordinary wear and tear will, in the absence of satisfactory explanation, be made good at the expense of the individual concerned; and deficiencies must similarly be replaced.

The clothing will be kept in a special almirah at Madras in the Cash Keeper's charge. Each servant's clothing will be kept in a separate compartment with his name on it.

Before putting clothing away in the almirah the CashKeeper will examine it carefully and will submit a report to the Head Clerk in regard to articles which require renewal. He will also see that all necessary repairs are carried out at once by a cooly tailor, so that the articles may be ready for use at any time.

Separate orders will issue shortly in regard to the supply of cotton and warm uniform & clothing to be made in future to menial establishments.

The Cash Keeper will see that each servant concerned signs a declaration that these rules have been translated to and are understood by him.

With the sanction of the Honorable Members of Government the foregoing rules will be applicable to Chobdars
and peons doing duty under their orders.

OFFICE NOTE.

August 5th 1894.

From

THE CHIEF SECRETARY,

To Chief Constable, City of Madras

The dress and condition of the peons attached to the Chief Secretariat are so filthy and untidy that I am determined not to permit it any longer. The men have no excuse. They are provided with excellent clothing at the cost of Govt. and they have every thing necessary to wash them & turn out when on duty smart and in proper order.

I give peons and chobdars one week from today to make themselves tidy & to have their uniforms properly and up to date when on duty with their coats brushed from clean and no loose and hanging about.

At the end of that time I shall insist on having any peons, chobdars, or persons belonging to the Chief Secretariat who are not clean, properly and ready dressed when on duty.

I take this opportunity of passing orders on another matter connected with the peons under my orders, which includes those attached to the chambers of Council.
Every year these men have an opportunity to get out for including with their uniforms with the necessary of boots socks & umbrellas.

I have reason to believe that the articles sent out the door of the chambers belonging to the peons are not properly looked after.

Office Order regarding

for peons &c.

FOR ORDERS.

I have been going into the subject of the clothing issued at the expense of Govt to peons and other manual servants on the Sec^y Establishment and have found much calling for reform.

Amongst other things I have had very strong reason to believe that there has been a good deal of selling of clothing and other articles by the peons. I issued an order in 1883 in view of putting a stop to this trade with little or no success.
I now propose to issue another which I hope will be more effectual and I ask with reference to the concluding portion of the enclosed drafts the sanction of Hon^{ble} to make it applicable to the chotdars and peons attached to them.

I believe that these servants are in all matters of discipline to be entirely under my control but to avoid any diffidence in the matter to which this note relates I consider it expedient to seek the express consent of Hon^{ble} to treat these chotdars and peons
as regards the order which I propose issuing on the same footing as the other peons of the Secretariat.

Yours
J. B. C.

By all means, as far as I am concerned.
My chotdars are a pair of shabby duffers who ought to be punished.

W. L.
7 Oct.

I have no objection. I know how many peons are recommended to be dismissed on the ground of being idle or otherwise. I propose a scheme for abolishing all office peons and for the placing them under the absolute personal control of the head of each office to be paid out of a Manager's allowance.

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

Trend you the file about peons clothing. The office order and the L.P.O. can apparently issue without further delay. It seems unnecessary to send the latter to Secretaries for counter initials.

The matter dealt with in the notes of H. H. can conveniently be dealt with separately. With reference to Hon. Sir Henry Stobbes last note, will you kindly put up any papers there may be on the subject & note if necessary.

I hope you approve the office order. Perhaps there may be an old almirah which could be converted before we come down.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the supply, at the public expense, of liveries to messengers:—

Rules.

I.—Liveries are supplied to messengers on the staff of His Excellency the Viceroy and their Excellencies the Governors of Madras and Bombay at the charge of the household allowances, and these rules do not apply to such messengers.

II.—Liveries may be supplied to messengers on the staff of the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governors at their discretion according to existing arrangements.

III.—Until further orders, liveries may be supplied to the establishments of the Political Department under existing arrangements.

IV.—Liveries may be supplied under Rule V. to messengers on the following establishments:—

A High Court.

The staff of a Chief Commissioner or Agent to the Governor-General, and of the Resident, Hyderabad.

The Secretariat of any Government.

A Chief Court.

A Board of Revenue.

A Judicial Commissioner.

A Financial do.

The Commissioners of Revenue and Police in the Bombay Presidency.

Any establishment located on public grounds at a hill station.

V.—To every messenger on the establishments specified in Rule IV. a suitable livery may be supplied every second year at such a cost (not exceeding Rupees 20) as may be fixed by the Local Government. In case of much wear and tear through travelling, the Local Government may authorize the more frequent supply of liveries, but never more than one suit a year. The limit of Rupees 20 does not apply in the case of jemadars and other petty officers of orderlies. The limit in the case of such petty officers is to be Rupees 40.

VI.—Liveries are not to be provided at the public expense for any other messengers.

Ordered that this Resolution be distributed for information and guidance as follows:—

To the several Departments* of the Government of India. The Foreign Department will kindly, after inquiry, propose a proper scale for the messengers and petty officers in the Political Department to whom livery must be allowed.

To the several Local Governments and Administrations.
To the Comptroller-General, and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
To the Director-General of the Post Office of India.

Communicated to the Revenue, Military, and Public Works Departments, also to the High Court and to the Revenue Board.

2. Under the authority conveyed by the Government of India, the Governor in Council directs that one Duffadar and five Peons be provided with clothing in each Department of the Secretariat from the commencement of the ensuing official year.

3. The cost of clothing will be for—

One Duffadar	RS. 40
One Peon... ..	20

The clothing will be renewed biennially.

4. The aggregate cost will amount to Rupees 560, viz.:—

For four Duffadars, at Rupees 40 each	RS. 160
Twenty Peons, at Rupees 20 each	400
Total	560

5. The clothing must be of uniform pattern, that of the Duffadars being of better quality than that of the Peons.

The cost of peons facings and Kummurbund
The coat and trousers without the above ornaments cost

Turbands - It is suggested that if possible these should be the same throughout the Secretariat; one quality for the Council Dubash and Duffadars, and another for the peons. There may be some difficulty in obtaining sufficient of a uniform color now for all Departments, but an effort may be made.

Nothing worth issuing can be purchased for Rs. 8.0, it would be waste of money to purchase turbands at that rate for the Ootaca.

The turbands are estimated to cost Rs 5/- to Rs 3/- respectively but as they are calculated only 2 are shown in the annual estimate.

mund climate. the price fixed should be for peons Rs 28.0 and for Duffadars.

These should last 2 years.

In all cases where clothing has to last 2 years the fact should be clearly notified & if by careless use any article become unserviceable before the expiry of the 2 years a new one should be provided the individual being put under stoppages of pay until it be made good.

The undersigned begs to circulate the accompanying papers regarding the clothing of the General's person in the field.
The diversity of dress & ornamentation in the several departments which has hitherto prevailed
is very objectionable & unsightly, and it is proposed that uniform design be adopted. The paper marked A, drawn up
by Col. Henry Sherburne

contains a plan for sewing this, and Col.
Kenney Herbert kindly consents to supervise the execution of the designs of the tunings in
the New & P.W. will let him know how many yards will be wanted.

If clothing has already been ordered elsewhere
the tunings as per his new design can be put on. A specimen coat & patterns of the facing clothes are sent for inspection.

RESOLUTION.

Simla, the 23rd May 1890.

IN the Resolution of the Government of India in the Finance Department, No. 613, dated 28th January 1874, rules were laid down regarding the supply of liveries to messengers employed in Government offices. The offices of which the messengers should be entitled to liveries, the frequency with which liveries could be supplied, and the limit of cost of liveries were stated in those rules. The Governor-General in Council has now decided that it is expedient to entrust to Local Governments discretion to lay down rules regarding the supply of liveries the cost of which is Provincial on the understanding that the several Local Governments will, by the orders they issue on the subject, effectually prevent the occurrence of any abuses such as the rules hitherto enforced by the Government of India were designed to prevent.

2. Accordingly, the Governor-General in Council has decided that the rules in the Resolution quoted above and subsequent amending or explanatory orders shall no longer apply to liveries the cost of which is Provincial. Each Local Government should issue rules (1) naming the offices the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries; (2) stating the frequency with which each messenger of those offices may be supplied with liveries; and (3) laying down maximum limits for the cost of each livery. The rules should require the officers who are allowed to supply liveries to their messengers to show the total charges on account of each livery, or each set of liveries, in a form which will enable the Account Office to check the expenditure, and to see that the rules laid down are duly observed.

3. The rules on the subject hitherto in force generally will continue to apply to the supply of liveries in offices the cost of which is Imperial. But if it is considered that any Imperial offices in any Province should be in this matter subject to the rules prescribed by the Local Government for Provincial offices, a representation should be made by the Local Government stating the rules issued by it, and the Imperial offices to which it is proposed to extend them.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, and to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers.

The 1st July 1890.

6. Under the orders of the Government of India, No. 613, dated 28th January 1874, and No. 7484, dated 31st December 1874, the Commissioner and Judicial Commissioner of Chota Nagpore are included among the officers whose messengers may be supplied with liveries at the public expense. Under the Bengal Government orders No. 776, dated 9th October 1882, liveries were sanctioned for 12 chuprasces attached to the district and subdivisional offices in the Darjeeling Hill at an annual cost of Rs. 200, debitable to contract contingencies; and under Government order No. F $\frac{2-L}{3}$ 13, dated 2nd August 1889, a livery was sanctioned for the peon attached to the Income Tax Office of the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling. Liveries were also sanctioned under the orders noted on the margin for the chuprasces of the Commissioner of Rajshahye and the peon attached to the Wards Department of his office.

Government order No. 955, dated 27th March 1883.
" " " 1917, dated 17th August 1888.
" " " 1669T—F, dated 25th September 1886.

7. The orders sanctioning liveries for these establishments will remain in force. But it is necessary that the charge should be brought under proper audit, and the cost will therefore no longer be debited to contract contingencies. In future the chuprasces of the Judicial Commissioner of Chota Nagpore will be supplied with liveries once in every two years only: the chuprasces of the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, of the Commissioner of Rajshahye, and of the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling, may be supplied, if necessary, with liveries every year. The maximum cost of livery sanctioned for the head peon or jemadar of these offices is Rs. 20; for all other peons and officers for whom a livery is sanctioned, Rs. 12 only.

8. The Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, the Judicial Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, the Commissioner of Rajshahye, and the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling (through the Commissioner) are now desired to prepare and transmit to this office a list of messengers and others to whom these orders apply, with the maximum cost laid down in each case. This list will, after such examination and revision as may be necessary, be communicated to the Accountant-General for his guidance, and a copy will also be forwarded for their information.

DARJEELING, THE 1ST JULY 1890.

RESOLUTION.

UNDER the Resolution of the Government of India, in the Finance and Commerce Department, No. 2544, dated 23rd May 1890,* the Local Government has been authorised to lay down rules for the supply of liveries to messengers employed in Government offices, the cost of which is Provincial—(1) naming the offices the messengers of which may be supplied with liveries; (2) stating the frequency with which each messenger of these offices may be supplied with liveries; and (3) laying down maximum limits for the cost of each livery.

2. With reference to these orders, it is now laid down that messengers of the following offices in Calcutta, and attached to the head-quarters of Government, may be supplied with liveries:—

Calcutta offices and offices attached to the head-quarters of Government.

1. The Bengal Secretariat in all its branches.
2. The Board of Revenue.
3. The Office of the Director of Public Instruction.
4. Ditto Inspector-General of Jails.
5. Ditto ditto of Registration.
6. Ditto ditto of Civil Hospitals.
7. Ditto Sanitary Commissioner.
8. Ditto Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture.
9. Ditto Provincial Superintendent of Census.

The peons employed in personal attendance on the Excise Commissioner may also be supplied with liveries.

3. New liveries may be supplied annually to the jemadars and peons in attendance on the Secretaries and Under-Secretaries to Government, to the duffries and peons who go on duty with the Secretariat to Darjeeling, and to the peons in attendance on the Heads of Departments who are authorised to accompany the Government to Darjeeling. The jemadars and peons employed in the Office of the Board of Revenue, the peons in personal attendance on the Excise Commissioner, and the peons and other servants in the Secretariat who do not accompany the Tour Office to Darjeeling will be supplied with liveries every alternate year.

4. The maximum cost of the liveries now sanctioned is laid down on the following scale:—

	Rs.
1. Jemadars of the Secretaries to Government and of the Office of the Board of Revenue ..	50
2. The head peon in attendance upon each of the officers specified in the above list, and upon each of the Under-Secretaries to Government ..	30
3. All other peons and servants for whom a livery is sanctioned..	20

This limit of expenditure is not to be exceeded in any case without the special orders of Government. It must also be understood that, with reference to the special grants now made, no expenditure should in future be incurred on liveries in any office from contract contingencies.

5. All officers affected by these orders are desired, without loss of time, to prepare and transmit to this office a list of messengers and others to whom the orders apply, with the maximum cost laid down in each case. This list will, after such examination and revision as may be necessary, be communicated to the Accountant-General for his guidance, and a copy will also be forwarded to each officer for his information.
