A draft order on H.E. the Viceroy's programme is submitted It was thought that the programme and Memorandum would be published in the Gazette of India and that republication here would be sufficient. The latest issue of the Gazette of India received this morning (dated 22nd instan) has not got the programme, so an order communicating it to those concerned appears necessary.

The second para is based on the precedent of Lord Ripon's visit in 1884 when the I. G. of Police accompanied the Viceroy on his departure from Madras beyond the limits of the Presidency. (Ripon)
