It is submitted that the Civil Apothecary

As I understand the G. O. stated by the S. G. neither of the men referred to can be considered to be private candidates. The question of whether a man has originally been a private student has I take it nothing to do with the matter; the question which determines his position is whether he at the time that he offers himself for competition is a private or not. Both men

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Public DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to G.O. N^o 656 a Pub: dated the 17th September 1892, I have the honor to state that 2 medical subordinates already in the Service have applied to be permitted to compete for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Assistant Surgeon Nowrojee - One of these is a Civil Apothecary entertained this year under G.O. N^o 17 Pub: of 12 Aug: 1892 who obtained his medical qualifications at his own expense as a private student - The other is now an acting Asst. Surgeon, he was formerly a Hospital Assistant and while so employed passed his L.M.S. Examination as a private student, on payment of the necessary fees - They both claim to be allowed to compete as they obtained the

the necessary medical qualification for the Assistant Surgeon's grade at their own expense.

2. When G.O. 16th Sept^r 1887 N^o 1343 Pub. was promulgated, the contingency of a candidate for the Assistant Surgeon's grade educated at his own expense, being in the service of Government had not arisen - The question therefore arises whether a man who has been educated at his own expense but who is in Government employ can be considered to be a "private candidate" under the spirit that guided the G.O. under reference. I do not think myself that such men should be allowed to compete for those appointments open to "private candidates" using the term in the sense in which it was apparently originally applied.

3. The $\frac{1}{3}$ vacancies reserved for the subordinate grades are of course open to all duly qualified men in the Dept^t.

WITH ORDER

4TH NOVEMBER 1892, No. 758, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Surgeon-Major-General W. F. DEFABECK, M.D., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 24th October 1892, No. O—76.

With reference to G.O., No. 656-A, Public, dated the 17th September 1892, I have the honour to state that two medical subordinates already in the service have applied to be permitted to compete for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Assistant Surgeon Nowrojee. One of these is a civil apothecary entertained this year under G.O., No. 17, Public, of 12th January 1892, who obtained his medical qualifications at his own expense as a private student. The other is now an Acting Assistant Surgeon; he was formerly a hospital assistant, and while so employed passed his L.M.S. examination as a private student, on payment of the necessary fees. They both claim to be allowed to compete as they obtained the necessary medical qualification for the Assistant-Surgeon's grade at their own expense.

2. When G.O., dated 16th September 1887, No. 1343, Public, was promulgated, the contingency of a candidate for the Assistant-Surgeon's grade educated at his own expense being in the service of Government had not arisen. The question, therefore, arises whether a man who has been educated at his own expense but who is in Government employ can be considered to be a "private candidate" under the spirit that guided the Government Order under reference. I do not think myself that such men should be allowed to compete for those appointments open to "private candidates," using the term in the sense in which it was apparently originally applied.

3. The one-third vacancies reserved for the Subordinate grades are, of course, open to all duly qualified men in the department.

ORDER—dated 4th November 1892, No. 758, Public.

Neither of the men referred to is eligible to compete for the vacancy.
