The explanation is that is submitted with a satisfactory one. Subbarayalu Naidu was not and knew he was not in a position to back bills to the large bank that he did and he must have known also that if his friend was a wealthy man he would not require raised money on bills at all or if he did that he would have been able to get the name of some one better able to back in case of his failure than Subbarayalu Naidu.

The man must be a fool or else he has not told the truth.
He does not appear to have the handling of any money.

①

He does not handle money but he does handle materials & articles of value. The explanation of his indebtedness is not satisfactory there is no hope of his position being restored. In my opinion his services should be dispensed with ② I don't believe the story told - I ask the Asst to the Madras at 20% a month the

SIR,

Adverting to G. O. No. 531 dated 18 May last, I have the honor to state that J. Subbarayulu Naidu backed bills amounting to Rs 8448-1-because P. Gummurti Chetti had been a friend of his family for 25 years and was reputed to be very wealthy.
His duties as an Assistant in the
