WITH ORDER

Surgeon General
Act General. 9/11/92

He has broken his contract and committed an offence which would demand a Courtmartial if in Military duty.

6. Difficulties of somewhat less gravity have been met with from the Subordinate on Cholera duty at Kinnool, these will if possible be treated departmentally.
Each this offence ^{is} of the utmost gravity and calculated to have an injurious effect on other Subordinates if not dealt with accordingly ~~with~~ ~~severity~~. I recommend his dismissal from the Service with effect from the 6th August 1892 the date on which he was Suspended by the Head of his Department for gross disobedience of orders.

I have the honour to be

Yours obedient servant either he granted leave or his orders to Cumbum cancelled. As regards his failure to proceed to Cumbum when originally ordered, he explained that he wished to go via Velgode, the nearest route, but on arrival at Velgode was suddenly taken ill. This statement is reported by the District Surgeon to be utterly false as the nearest route to Cumbum is via Shour.

5. I gave the Hospital Assistant one more chance; and sent him telegraphic orders through the District Surgeon to proceed at once to Cumbum. I enclose a copy of his reply from which it will be seen that he has been rash enough to disobey repeated orders on such frivolous pretences. He has shown throughout a spirit of insubordination and the punishment awarded him in G.O. No: 281 Pub of the 9th April 1891 seems to have had no beneficial effect on him. He is now under suspension for refusal to act under orders.

He was ordered by the District Surgeon on the 29th July to proceed at once and an advance of Rs 5 was given him at his own request to meet his expenses, but instead of going to Cumbum he went to his own station Velgode and from there applied to the District Surgeon for 15 days privilege leave on the plea of ill-health although according to the District Surgeon's statement the Hospital Assistant was in perfect health when he left Shour.

4. He was suspended by the District Surgeon for disobedience of orders and a report of his conduct was made to this Office. As a head Subordinate was urgently required at Cumbum and there was no other man immediately available, the District Surgeon was asked by this Office to cancel the Hospital Assistant's suspension and to order him again to proceed to Cumbum submitting at the same time his explanation for not obeying the orders of the District Surgeon when that Officer directed him on the 29th July to proceed. Again he refused to go on the plea that his wife was in an advanced stage of pregnancy the Tahsildar. There happens to be an old man at that time who is able to read Telugu, he tried to read but said he is not able to read in the dark without spectacles. So I kept the letter for the next day when read by some one who is acquainted with Telugu. The next morning at 6 o'clock, the Tahsildar sent a man to my house to tell me that he has come to the Dispensary.

I told the Culpady that I just came washing my face, before I dressed myself the Tahsildar has left the place to Randi Kothur, his bandy meanwhile kept ready to carry him to his destination and beg to say that I was not able to look to the correspondence owing to pressure of work. After that I had emergency orders from the Dist. Surgeon to come to Head Quarters. By that time the Tahsildar made the present complaint.

In conclusion I beg to say that I examined the man, found him perfectly healthy, administered medicine for the alleged pain, and told the Constable to tell the Tahsildar who was in this place then that the man in question requires no bandy and fit to walk.
This I did twice the same day. The Tahsildar has endeavoured in the present circumstance to bring a charge against me from wilful malice but failed in his attempts.

Sir,

In obedience to your requisition to explain as follows. The Tahsildar sent a man at noon at about 10 o'clock along with a Constable. The Constable told me that the Tahsildar wants him (the man) who examined whether he is fit to walk or not. I immediately left my house on the same hour and proceeded to the Hospital and examined the man and found him perfectly healthy and told the Constable to tell him (the Tahsildar) that the man is able to walk and requires no bandy.

I also gave the man some liniment to rub on the leg for the alleged pain. In the same evening at about half past 6 o'clock the Tahsildar sent a letter written in Telugu through a Constable followed by the same man who came in the noon. I asked the man what he wanted and he said that he can't walk and requires a bandy. I told him that he is able to walk and that the Constable to tell the same to the Tahsildar who was then in this place and who also told him that I would reply that I removed the Hospital Assistant from Suspension and ordered him a second time to proceed to Cumbum on Cholera duty. at the same time calling on him for explanations to the Charges against him.

As regards the first Charge the Hosp route from here to Cumbum is through Dhone.

This journey would take only twenty four hours - whereas that through Velgode could hardly be done under four days. As for the Cholera medicines there was no necessity for him to go to Velgode, when he could have taken them from here. There is a sufficient supply of Cholera medicines in Cumbum.

His explanation to the second Charge is unsatisfactory. He could have

I have the honor to inform you

No: 392 of Velgode Dispensary was ordered on the 18th of July 1892 to close the Dispensary and to come down to Kumool for Cholera duty.

Here he worked so ^{very} unsatisfactorily that he was reported by the Sanitary Inspection and the Chairman for refusing to give aid to Cholera patients. As a hand was urgently required at Cumbum, I ordered him on the 29th July/92 to proceed by the first opportunity with a warning to be careful as to the future. He then stated that he had no money with him. I advanced him Rs 5) fine which he asked for.
Instead of proceeding to Cumbum as directed he in disobedience of my orders appears to have gone back to Velgode, whence he sent two letters - true copies of which are herewith enclosed.

He was suspended in January

Public Dept.

Case of Hospital Asst. V.

P. Nullattemby, recommended for dismissal.

The present case against the H.A. is fully set forth in the S. G. letter. The previous case is described in the note with G.O. of 9.4.91. No. 281. On that occasion his promotion was stopped for two years for wilful disobedience of orders, and that is also the charge against him now.

It is submitted that the H.A. has proved himself totally unfitted for the service and that nothing short of dismissal wd. sufficiently meet the requirements of the case.

J.D.B.
18/10 The papers in this show that this H.A. has been deliberately guilty of gross disregard of orders. His excuses are evidently utterly frivolous. He appears to have been most remiss in the performance of his work when on duty in Kurnool and his conduct with regard to the prisoner sent to him by the S. G. for examination was most improper. He had no business to - even if he did so which is doubtful - send a verbal
