Lieutenant General H. McLEOD, R.A.

H. B. M's Consular Agent, Pondicherry & Karikal.

To

The Honorable J. F. Price C.S.
Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St George

Sir,

I have the honor to inform that I propose to engage as clerk in the British Consular Office one P. Ganapati Aiyar in the place of J. Appasami Aiyar deceased.
P. Ganapati Aiyar was lately a clerk in the Office of the Sub-Collector of South Arcot who resigned his appointment on the 24 September 1891. Government in its order No. 1251 Nis R.D. dated 20th February 1892 (copy herewith enclosed) direct that he should be dismissed from Government Service

The original of the Rev: G.O. quoted is not at present available.
It is understood that Ganapati Iyer's dismissal was in connection with arrears of work.

It is unfortunate that General McLeod's choice has fallen on such a man. During his absence his Head Clerk is in charge of the Consular Agency. Would the Govt. be satisfied to have a man with Ganapati's antecedents in such a position?

There must be plenty of other qualified & suitable candidates.

The appointment seems to be hardly a desirable one but it is to be said that there appears to have been nothing against the man but the one opened. In India conduct of his subordinate was so bad of the most meddling character and though severe punishment was in the interests of discipline necessary there was a good deal to be learned

X Not so. ^{the persons} They were dismissed on the ground that they all simultaneously resigning they had conspired to do this step cause serious embarrassment to their seniors &
