CURRENT NO 5/27

His Excellency the Right Honorable

Lord Wellesley
Governor of Madras
Stonehouse Hill.

The Humble Petition of Mahboob Bee wife of the late Mahomed Murtuza Pensioned Sepoy of the Governor's Body Guard, residing in Bell's Road Triplicane, Madras.

Humbly Sheweth.

That your Excellency's Petitioner humbly and respectfully begs to bring these few following grievances to your Excellency's noble and merciful Consideration with an ardent hope that they may be redressed.

That your Excellency's Petitioner is the wife of Mahomed Murtuza, Pensioned Sepoy of the Governor's Body Guard who breathed his last on the 16th September 1892. The deceased has left behind him herself and five children at the mercy of the public at large and as such your Excellency's petitioner with her five children are left in a deplorable condition so much so that they are subjected to regular starvation. your petitioner can endure the hardships of appetite as long as she can, but the merciful sight of the five helpless children cannot be endured when they are subjected to starvation with her. The children in question are not in a position to work after their bread for the eldest of the lot being 11 years old. Moreover your petitioner being of a good family and being placed in Joda cannot herself go and work after their bread. It is considered as a great defect to unweil herself and beg for bread from door to door.

Further your Excellency will be fully aware that a regular famine sweeps all over Madras since a long time and consequently those who were in moderate circumstances are placed in narrow ones. And at present there is no one left either as a relative or a patron who can stretch a liberal hand towards or take pity on your Excellency's humble petitioners, except the Merciful Being.

During the life time of your Excellency's husband she was to a good extent under the shelter of her Grandfather who was in the Service of H. H. the late Ghulam Ghouse Khan Bahadur, the last British Nabob of the Carnatic and of the Nabob's demise she (her grandfather) was allowed a pension of Rupees five per mensem which sum was coming to her. But a little before her husband's death her grandfather died and afterwards her husband died and hence your Excellency's petitioners are left forlorn.

Under these foregoing circumstances your Excellency's poor petitioners with her five children crave that your Excellency will be graciously be pleased to direct the Commissioners of Madras to admit her into the Triplicane Langarkhane among those who receive a monthly compensation of rice.

For which act of kindness and charity as in your petitioners as in duty bound I shall ever pray.
