 (3) ORDER. Please see marginal note.

H.E. the Governor-in-Council is pleased, under the provisions of art.
 98(a) of the C.S.R., to place Mr. D.W.G.
 Cowie on special duty for a period of six months for the work of arranging the records of the office of the Board of Revenue.

2. The Board of Revenue will be informed that in no case will Mr Cowie's employment on special duty be extended & that at the end of the period specified his services will be withdrawn.

3. Mr Cowie will assume charge of the duties on relief in the Secretariat

It is submitted that an officer can well be spared now for the special duty in the Board's Office.

(10) I withdraw my note of 7th Nov. The order placing Mr Cowie on the special duty in the Board's Office being that of the majority of the Govt. should now issue. I am not a party to it.

The papers should go again to the Govt. where and to the arrangement is conditional on no district being left without an officer. The condition apparently is not fulfilled. The draft therefore does not represent the views of a majority of the Govt. It should not have been sent to the Revenue Department. without an explanation from the C.S. Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) Financial Department. Accountant General D.W.G. Cowie Esq.

(9) The papers are resubmitted to the Hon'ble Sir Henry Stokes K. C. S. I. with reference to his note marked (A) on page 1 of the Notes.

The Honorable Member

Yes. appears to have overlooked the Chief Secretary's note of the 7th instant on page 4 of the Notes, in which it was explained that no Head Assistant's divisions are at present in charge of Deputy Collectors.

The third paragraph of the Chief Secretary's note of the 7th requires modification in that Mr. Buckley, having been absorbed in the arrangement consequent on the grant of 3 weeks privilege leave to Mr. Thorburn, will not immediately set free an Ag. Head Assistant. In addition to the officers mentioned there, the following ^{will retain} ~~are due~~ from leave in Nov. and December -

133.	Mr. E. G. Spencer	on 25 th Nov.
129	Mr. J. P. Bedford	on 24 "
110	Mr. J. F. Wetherill	" 2. Decr
71	Mr. C. M. Mulla	" 10 Decr
40	Mr. G. Stokes	" 10. Decr.
53.	Mr. T. P. Fiddian	" 20. Decr.
52.	Mr. G. F. P. Porer	" 25 Decr
100	Mr. R. C. C. Can	" 26. Decr

The first two of these are eligible for Ag. Head Assistantships. The third will set free a junior Ag. Std. Assistant. The fourth will probably do the same.

Mr. Sir Henry Stokes K. C. S. I.
Mr. Mr. G. Stokes C. S. I.

With reference to the Hon. Sir Henry Stokes' note within it is submitted that there are no Head Assistant's divisions in charge of Deputy Collectors present. Mr. G. W. Elphinstone has posted to act as Head Assistant Salom last month.

There is, moreover, no ^{lack} ~~paucity~~ of Indian Civilian to fill charges at present.

3. The return of Mr. Gillman from leave on the 6th instant sets free an Ag. Head Assistant, Mr. Buckley due on the same day will set free a second and Mr. Munro, due on the 9th, will set free a third.

The Hon. Mr. G. Stokes C. S. I., though agreeing to the deputation of Mr. Cowie, has not said anything as regards the deputation allowance.

(2) I do not see any objection to this arrangement, if there is no district left without an officer for any appreciable time. I presume Mr. Lowe will finish the work within six months.

23 Oct.

(5) Mr. Lowe would do the work very well. If Mr. Lowe is to get deputation allowance the thing will cost over $5000 and I am not at all clear as to the necessity of this work, or the expediency of spending so much upon it. Some D. C. attention and now I think in charge of Headmistress division & this certainly should not be continued to admit of the deputation of an officer on this duty in the Board's Office. Mr. Corrie is 2 years senior to Mr. Levy & I think should turn him out, let him go back to Fitzpatrick, turning out Mr. E. R. Smith.

29 Oct.

The work has already been done. I think it would be better done by a Civilian than by a D. C. - In fact, I think Mr. Corrie is the principal duty to be done & to perform it to select papers.

(1) Mr. Butterworth is due from Dividing leave on the 18th prox and will turn out Mr. Corrie.

I submit for your Excellency's consideration that Mr. Lowe may be placed upon special duty in the Board's Office for the purpose of examining the records. Mr. Buckley was selected for this, ~~but it was afterwards decided~~ but it was afterwards decided, for reasons of which your Excellency is aware, not to appoint him, and to wait until some other officer was available.

Mr. Corrie has during the time that he has been in the Office worked very well indeed and has shown himself to be both diligent and able. I think that he would do the work required by the Board carefully and well.
