CURRENT NO. 3174

G.O 5TH NOVEMBER 1892, No. 1063, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Tinnevely, dated 22nd January 1892, No. 48.

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 23rd September 1892, No. A.D.J.—277.

Submitted to Government. In August 1890, the applicant represented to the Tahsildar of Ambásamudram, under whom he was employed, that he was getting too old for service and requested that his son might be appointed in his stead. Accordingly, on the recommendation of the Tahsildar, the Head Assistant Collector appointed the son to succeed his father, and the latter, who was then 62 years old, resigned his appointment and stated in clear terms that he would forfeit his pension if his son were appointed to succeed him. In April 1891, however, he applied for pension. An inferior servant of that age is entitled to retire on a pension, provided his incapacity for further service is certified by the head of his office. On reference the Collector forwards a certificate given by the Tahsildar of Ambásamudram, which goes to prove that the applicant was unfit for further service in August 1890 when he resigned his appointment in favour of his son. Should Government, under the circumstances, be pleased to accept the certificate and to treat the resignation as one not falling under article 460 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, his qualifying service in inferior grades will in all amount to 36 years 11 months and 14 days and will entitle him to an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 3 per mensem, equal to half-pay under articles 486 and 524 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations. If the pension be granted it would rest with Government, with reference to article 1013 of the regulations, to fix the date from which it should be paid.

In accordance with rule 3 under article 994 (b), the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to article 514 of the regulations.

ORDER—dated 5th November 1892, No. 1063, Pension.

The applicant was a peon in the Ambásamudram taluk, Tinnevely district. In August 1890, when he was 62 years old and had put in a service of 36 years 11 months and 14 days entitling him, under ordinary circumstances, to a pension of half pay, he offered, of his own motion, to resign his appointment and forfeit all claim to pension on condition that his son was appointed in his place. The Head Assistant Collector complied with his request and appointed his son to the vacant post. Eight months afterwards applicant put in a claim to pension under the regulations.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council has fully considered the facts of the case and is of opinion that the applicant's claim to pension is barred under article 460 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations; his application for pension will accordingly be rejected. No real hardship is entailed on the applicant by this decision, as the son's salary takes the place of the father's pension.

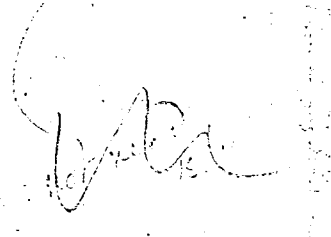

3. The Government disapproves of conditional resignations and directs that they should under no circumstances be permitted.
