ledge receipt of the various papers sent me for which I have granted formal Receipt to the Clerk (Mr. Pires) who brought same.

3 I will as directed, as soon as possible after going through the Records connected with the case which I am now doing, endeavour to ascertain who the Witnesses are to be examined before the Commission, and what are the Documents to be exhibited in support of each Head of Charge. The Act Section 10 requires that these particulars should be furnished, but I notice that in the Draft Charges submitted to Government by the Advocate General he has not gone into these particulars perhaps for want of information from the papers then before him.
