[Despatch Abstract.]

Mr. F. O'F. Fernandez
des an insolent
promitted to return
his post to clerk in the ^{Rev.} 'Bored' office

6. No. 3296.

From The Board of Revenue.

Dated 21st Nov: 1892.FOR ORDERS.

I don't see anything special in the case, but as the B.^d recommends his statement to be it.

If the statements made by the District is true - and the B.^d seems to think that it is - his case is a hard one. He however seems to have upon more than one occasion borrowed sums which for a man in his position were very large
- e.g. Rs. 500 upon one occasion & Rs. 1000 on another. His letter affords no explanation of these large loans. His character and conduct are stated to be good and the B.^d recommends that he may be allowed to continue in the public service. Submitted that he may be with a warning that if he goes to the Court again he will be removed. It will take him ~~six~~ some seven years to pay off the principal alone

Public Department.

Sir.

I am directed to forward for the information and orders of Government, Copies of the Schedule, Balance Sheet and Court's orders in the matter of the insolvency of Mr. J.
L'V. Fernandez a clerk in this office drawing pay of Rs 125 per mensem.

2 I forward also a letter from Mr. Fernandez dated 23rd May 1892 explaining the circumstances under which he was compelled to apply

apply for the benefit of the Insolvent Debtors Act.

3 Taking these circumstances into Consideration it was not deemed necessary to suspend Mr. Fernandez and he was therefore permitted to attend to his office duties pending final order on his case.

4 It will be seen that Mr. Fernandez has been declared by the Court to be entitled to the benefit of the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors but that the Court has ordered him to pay Rs 25/- per mensem towards the liquidation of his debts. It will be observed also from Mr. Fernandez' affidavit that he had previously offered to execute a trust deed assigning Rs 65/- per per mensem for the benefit of his Creditors, which they declined to accept.

5 Mr. Fernandez has served for some 14 years in the Board's office and his character has always been good.

6 As his insolvency appears to have been brought about in a great measure by circumstances over which he had no control, I am to say that the Board considers that he may be allowed to retain his appointment.

I have the honor to be
Sir.

Your most obedient servant.
