The Straits fortifications of the university for further service of Mr. A. B. Carter Chief Clerk of the Singapore Land Office —

(Copy).

General Hospital,

Singapore, 19th. June, 1892.

Mr. A. B. Carlos, Land Office, was admitted to this Hospital on the 13th. instant complaining of Laryngitis.

Certificate of sickness was forwarded on the 16th. giving him 8 days as probable duration of sickness.

On further examination, the man was found to be suffering from tubercle of the lung, and probably of the larynx as well. The best hope for him is to obtain sick leave and proceed to India or some other climate.

The probable duration of his sickness is uncertain, but I should recommend his having three months' leave.
