Government of Madras.

Military Department.

Fort St. George, the 2nd February 1892.

Read the following:-

From the General Officer Commanding Madras District.
No. 37, dated Fort St. George, 16th January 1892.

I have the honor to request that, in order to give the Madras Volunteer Guards and Volunteer Artillery the fullest opportunity of turning out and co-operating at the Rehearsal of Defences of Madras, (probably the 2nd week in February), all those who are employed in Government Offices, may be allowed to remain in Camp during the Rehearsal up to 9 a.m. returning for parade at 5 p.m. As the beginning of the Rehearsal depends on the return of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, I will give due notice of the actual date the operations will begin and end.

Order:- Communicated to all military offices in the town of Madras with the request that the wishes of the General Officer Commanding Madras District may be given effect to.

2. The foregoing letter will also be communicated to the several Departments of the Secretariat in view to similar instructions being issued to Heads of Departments serving under their respective orders.
