In the case of the First Assistant & Registrar in the Revenue Secretariat, their grading with Deputy Collectors would not seem to be in any way inappropriate, but as regards some other office Assistants it would be very inappropriate. The Military & Public Works Assistants have ~~absolutely nothing~~ in the remotest way to do with Revenue matters & the only instances in which the Assistants in the Public Department come into connection with Revenue work is when it ceases to be purely Revenue & general Financial, & Marine, issues are raised.

Of course, grading office Assistants with some department might benefit them. Instead of a second Assistant remaining for years on Rs 350 he might, while still working in the same office, step by step advance in his grade. The interests of

I agree with what is said in this note except that I do not see a case for grading even the Revenue Secretariat Assistants with Deputy Collectors. Their work, though in some respects of a higher kind than that of Deputy Collectors is entirely different and though they possess an abstract knowledge of revenue matters they are entirely destitute of training in magisterial work. This, nowadays, is of great importance for subdivisional change. Transfers ~~from the~~ Secretariat to duty as Deputy Collectors ought to be very sparingly made, but for the rare cases in which they may be advisable on public grounds they will to some extent be facilitated by the inclusion of the Secretariat appointments in the Provincial Service. The inclusion is right as it gives the holders of these appointments a status which they ought to have. If these men suffer for slowness of promotion, they have some compensation in the fact that the salary which they receive is

The Honorable J. F. Price
Chief Secretary to Government Madras.

Honorable Sir,

I understand that it is under contemplation to include the Secretariat Assistants in the new Provincial Service, but to place them in a separate ungraded list. I beg respectfully to submit for the consideration of Government the advisability of including them in the graded list, as the Government will then be able to give promotion to Deserving Assistants without transferring them from the work for which they may be found fitted and also to transfer an officer from the Secretariat to the Executive branch and vice versa, whenever such transfer is found desirable in the interests of the public service or otherwise. As this arrangement will serve as an encouragement to the Assistants in the Secretariat, while it involves no additional cost to Government, I beg that you will submit it for the favourable consideration of Government. A similar arrangement has been sanctioned in the case of the Assistant.

the individual^s can, however, hardly be taken into consideration if there are objections on general grounds & such objections are considered to exist here. The ~~inevitable~~ ^{inevitable} result of grading all the First Assistants with Deputy Collectors ~~will~~ be to fill the higher grades of the latter before very many years had gone by with men who had not served a day in the lower grades and who would by ~~training~~ ^{training} be more or less incompetent to discharge the duties if they were required to go out into the districts.

It is suggested for consideration whether if there is to be any grading of office Assistants it might not be confined to those under the Revenue Secretary

As to the case of the Assistant, L & M. dept, the difficulty might be met to some extent by turning his present appointment into one carrying incremental pay & allowing him to draw an increment at once so as to make his allowances more on a level with those drawn by ~~others~~ ^{others} who have similar duties to perform.

SUBJECT.

Regarding the inclusion of the Secretariat Assistants in the New Provincial Service.

With reference to his letter recd. on the 30th ult. from the First Asst. in the L. & M. Dept. ~~with~~ is informed that it is not considered advisable to grade the ~~Sec~~ Secretariat Assistants with the Deputy Collectors. The work of the former, though in some respects of a higher kind than that of Deputy Collectors, is entirely different and ~~unlike~~ ^{unlike} ~~unlike~~ ^{unlike} ~~of~~ ^{no} ~~magisterial~~ ^{magisterial} training.

Transfers of Secretariat Assistants to duty as Deputy Collectors will, when such are advisable on public grounds, be to some extent facilitated by the inclusion of the Secretariat appointments in the Provincial Service. If the Secretariat Assistants suffer from slowness of promotion they have some compensation in the fact that the salaries which they receive are generally considerably higher than officers of their standing receive in the General Service.
