Read the following Replies from District
Magistrates to G.O. No. 1926 of 17th September 1891, Judicial.

The object with which estimates were called for in G.O.
of 17th September 1891, No. 1926, Judicial, was to ascertain whether economy could be effected by having Magisterial forms in general use printed at the Government Press, Madras. The principal forms are those laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure. It has however been found impossible to extract them from the estimates submitted by District Magistrates on account of the designation and number of the forms as laid down in the code having in some cases been departed from.

2. In order that the papers may be placed before the Superintendent, Government Press, for an estimate of the cost of supplying the forms District Magistrates are requested to submit without delay the following:-

- (i) An estimate of the number of Criminal Procedure Code forms - required annually, both in English and the Vernacular (to be stated).
The forms should be designated and numbered consecutively as laid down in Schedule V of the code.
- (ii) An estimate of the annual supply required of other magisterial forms in use in the district accompanied by a specimen copy of each and information in regard to the authority for the use of each.
- (iii) A list of any of the forms included in the estimates which are at present printed at the Government Press, Madras.

OFFICE NO 1222

Office Note.

In reply to G. O., dated 29th September 1892, No. 682 Public, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits the following particulars regarding the estimates called for.

1. From the accompanying statement, it will be seen that 1,552 Code forms and 1,281 other Magisterial forms with 83,6520 copies, are to be printed. Of these 710 Code forms and 684 other Magisterial forms with 59,10,810 copies are now printed at the Government Press from time to time for District Magistrates.

2. The cost for setting up the Code forms to the various sizes now in use will be about Rs. 1,000, but if only one form is adopted for each of the 58 forms required, the cost will be as follows:-

Code	Rs
Composition work	143
Striking off	2,887
	Rs. 3,030

As regards the other Magisterial forms the cost for setting up as now printed will be:-

Other	Rs.
Composition work	944
Striking off	2,412
	Rs. 3,356

If they are reduced in number by a greater uniformity being introduced

3650
3356
10760
17146

the cost will be considerably lessened.

3. The probable quantity and cost of paper of different descriptions required will be as follows:—

	Reams.	Repus.
Code forms	1394	4160
Other forms	2110	6600
Total	3504	10760

This estimate is based on a simplification of the many forms adopted by the different Collectors. It has been estimated that printing double foolscap 28 lbs and 16 lbs only will be used for these forms and yellow double foolscap 25 lbs for forms of Warrant, non-bailable.

4. To assist in bringing about a revision in the size of the Code forms, the specimen copies received are very few as compared with the number of forms mentioned in the several indents, and a number of them are sent in manuscript; it is therefore impossible for me to fix upon a size to be adopted in all districts.

5. With reference to the other Magisterial forms, I have looked together certain of the forms as used in the several districts (nos. 1 to 44)* from which it will be seen that a form is printed in some districts on a quarter sheet of double foolscap and in other districts on a half sheet; some are in tabular form, whilst others are in ordinary form, and some districts use writing paper whilst other districts use printing paper for the same forms. The remaining forms are common to all districts, amongst which are the Annual Statistical Returns supplied by the High Court, the jail returns by the Inspector General of Jails, and a few Judicial and other forms prescribed in G. O. and issued by the Government Press or indents from the District Magistrates.

* Sent by Railway Parcel.

* Sent by Railway Parcel.

6. To undertake the printing and issue of the Code and other Magisterial forms upon the system now in force for the Civil Procedure forms, it will be necessary for the Superintendent of Stationery to select one out of each of the forms now in use, print spare copies of them and place himself in communication with all the District Magistrates, as was done by the Registrar of the High Court before the Civil Procedure Code forms were adopted and the printing and despatching undertaken by the Press. It must also be settled whether each form is to be in English and the several vernaculars separately or in diglot.

7. The delay in submitting this office note has arisen partly from references having been made to the District Magistrates, and to the pressure of other work.

8. The accommodation for storing these forms will be available when the Inspector-General of Jails cements them in a room at the Penitentiary which was asked for in November last.

With the p.p. read above the estimates received from Distt Magistrates, of the number of Criminal Procedure Code and other Magisterial forms required for use in the various districts were forwarded to the Superintendent Govt Press with the request that the approximate cost of printing the forms might be reported. In his reply, also read above, the Superintendent puts down the cost at Rs 17,14-6 but owing to the ~~absence~~^{want} of any uniformity in the heading size or of the forms now in use, this is at the outside a very rough estimate. Nor is the information of much use for purposes of comparison as the cost at present actually incurred in the various districts on this account is not known. There cannot however be any doubt that printing the forms in a central Press must be considerably cheaper. It is submitted therefore that the recommendation in para: 6 of the Superintendent's note may be accepted and the Superintendent of Stamp & Stationery directed to take the necessary steps in the matter. Under para: 10 of G.O. 28th July 1891 No 653 F.D. there will be no necessity for storing the forms in Madras.

There appear to be 53 forms under ~~§~~ § V of the C. P. Code - See Mr Bird's list in E.O. 29-9-72, No. ~~155~~ 682. These have to be printed in English & the vernacular, & I suppose that the 1552 forms of Mr Hill's statement must be made up of these 53 multiplied by a certain number of ~~district~~ Courts - the forms for one Court in a district not being the same as those for another - & again multiplied by the number of languages: always two & in some cases more than two.

But this is merely a guess.

The suggestion made by the District Magistrate of Nilgiris, in his letter recorded in G.O. of 17 September 1891 No 1926 of D., that all forms required for use in the various Magisterial Courts of the Presidency may be printed and supplied in indent by the Superintendent Government Press, is approved. The printing should however be done under the orders of the Superintendent of Stationery in whose District Magistrates will indent for the forms required by them and their subordinates. As there is no uniformity in the heading size of ~~the~~ ^{the forms} now in use the Superintendent of Stationery will with, before he gives any orders for printing, place himself in communication with District Magistrates in accordance with the proposal contained in para 11 of his letter printed in G.O. 28th July 1891 No 653 G.O. with a view to arrange for the adoption of a single form for several of the same descriptions now existing.

2. From the office note from the Superintendent - Government Press read above, it appears that there are 1552 codes and 1281 other Magisterial forms in use at present but under the suggestion now approved there will be only 53 of the former and a small no. of the latter, the exact amount in this case being left to be decided by the Superintendent of Stationery in communication with District Magistrates. Whether the various forms are to be printed in English and and the General Vennuculars separately or in digest with be similarly decided by Superintendent of Stationery. With reference to para 8 of Mr. Hill's office note, it is observed that the paper required for the forms will be furnished from the supplies to the Districts which will then be correspondingly reduced and with regard to para 8, it will be pointed out to him that under para 1 of G.O. 28th July 1891 No 653 G.O. there will be no necessity for storing the forms in Madras.

MEMORANDUM

[Replies from District Magistrates to G.O., No. 1926, dated 17th Sept. 1891, Judicial.]

The object with which estimates were called for in G.O., dated 17th September 1891, No. 1926, Judicial, was to ascertain whether economy could be effected by having magisterial forms in general use printed at the Government Press, Madras. The principal forms are those laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure. It has, however, been found impossible to extract them from the estimates submitted by District Magistrates on account of the designation and number of the forms as laid down in the code having in some cases been departed from.

2. In order that the papers may be placed before the Superintendent, Government Press, for an estimate of the cost of supplying the forms, District Magistrates are requested to submit without delay the following:—

(i) An estimate of the number of Criminal Procedure Code forms required annually, both in English and the Vernacular (to be stated). The forms should be designated and numbered consecutively as laid down in schedule V of the code.

(ii) An estimate of the annual supply required of other magisterial forms in use in the district, accompanied by a specimen of each, and information in regard to the authority for the use of each.

(iii) A list of any of the forms included in estimates which are at present printed at the Government Press, Madras.

3. The enclosures received are returned herewith.

G.O., dated 29th September 1892, No. 682 Public.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding to the Superintendent, Government Press, the replies of District Magistrates regarding the magisterial forms required, and requesting the submission of an estimate of the cost of printing them.

estimates called for :—

1. From the accompanying 1,281 other magisterial forms with code forms and 684 other magisterial forms, the Government Press from time to time

2. The cost for setting up the about Rs. 1,000, but if only one for the cost will be as follows :—

As regards the other magistratures, the cost for setting up, as now printed, will be—

If they are reduced in number by a greater uniformity being introduced, the cost will be considerably lessened.

3. The probable quantity and cost of paper of different descriptions required will be as follows:—

Code forms	REAMS.	RS.

	2,110	6,600
Total	3,504	10,760

This estimate is based on a simplification of the many forms adopted by the different Collectors. It has been estimated that printing double foolscap 28 lb. and 16 lb. only will be used for these forms and yellow double foolscap 25 lb. for forms of warrant, non-bailable.

4. To assist in bringing about uniformity in the size of the code forms, the specimens received are very few compared with the number of forms mentioned in the several indents, and a number of them are sent in manuscript; it is therefore impossible for me to fix upon a size to be adopted in all districts.

5. With reference to the other ministerial forms, I have looped together certain place himself in communication with all the Registrar of the High Court before the Civil the printing and despatching undertaken whether each form is to be in English and diglott.

7. The delay in submitting this office-note has arisen partly from references having been made to the District Magistrates and the pressure of other work.

8. The accommodation for storing these forms will be available when the Inspector-General of Jails erects the new composing room at the Penitentiary which was asked for in November last.

ORDER—dated 17th June 1893, No. 471, Pu

The suggestion made by the District Magistrate of Nilgiris in his letter recorded in G.O., dated 17th September 1891, No. 19, Judicial Department, that all forms required for use in this various magisterial courts of this Presidency may be printed and supplied on indent by the Superintendent of Government Press, is approved. The printing should, however, be done under the orders of the Superintendent of Stationery on whom District Magistrates will indent for the forms required by them and their subordinates. As there is no uniformity in the heading, size, &c., of the forms now in use, the Superintendent of Stationery will be he gives any orders for printing, place himself in communication with District Magistrates in accordance with the proposal contained in paragraph 1 of his letter recorded in G.O., dated 28th July 1891, No. 653, Financial Department, with a view to arrange for the adoption of a single form for several of the same description now existing.

2. From the office-note from the Superintendent, Government Press, read above, it appears that there are 1,552 code and 1,281 of magisterial forms in use at present, but under the suggestion now approved there will be only 53 of the former and a small number of the latter, the exact amount his case being left to be decided by the Superintendent of Stationery in communication with District Magistrates. Whether the various forms are to be printed English and the several vernaculars separately or in diglott will also be similarly decided by the Superintendent of Stationery.

3. With reference to paragraph 3 of Mr. H's office-note, it is observed that the paper required for the forms will be furnished in the supplies to the districts which will then be correspondingly reduced and in regard to paragraph 8 it will be pointed out to him that under paragraph 1 of the order dated 28th July 1891, No. 653, Financial Department, there will be no necessity for storing the forms in Madras.
