C. No. 1635

From

The Hon. Mr. Justice Best

Dated 13 June

1893.

FOR ORDERS.

The Hon. Mr. Justice Best enquired if there is any objection to his joining his son in executing a promissory note for Rs. 8500 for the purchase of a Tea Estate in Sholur village. A similar question was discussed in 1887 in the case of the Hon. Mr. Master, whose son owned a tea estate near Kotagiri, in the purchase & upkeep of which he was assisted by his father (vide page 1 of printed file). The Secretary of State, to whom the question was submitted at the instance of the Hon. Mr. Master, ruled that the order of Govt. do not prohibit the acquisition or holding of land for agricultural purposes by a son even although the land be acquired with money furnished by the Civil Service, provided that the money was given as an absolute gift and that the Civil Servant has bona fide no interest whatever, legal or equitable, in the land or its produce.

Submitted that Mr. Best may be referred to the above order, which is reproduced as an addendum on page 49 of the Civil Service Manual, and informed that there is no objection to the transaction provided the condition laid down by the Secy. of State is fulfilled.

There seems to be no objection to the transaction as the Hon. Mr. Best is well off becoming surety for a loan and repayment in fixed instalments.
