GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 23rd October 1893, Mis. No. 6020 :—

Read—the following letter from S. H. WYNNE, Esq., Collector of Górávari, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Cocanada, 5th October 1893, No. 314 :—

When lands are acquired permanently, a notification is published under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act in the form given at page 7 of Board's Proceedings, dated 13th March 1893, No. 110. Section 43 of the Act requires that permission of Government should be obtained in cases where lands are required for temporary occupation, but no form has been prescribed. Information is, however, being submitted to Government in the ordinary draft declaration form. As no notification is to be published in this case, viz., when the lands are required for temporary occupation, a briefer form will be more convenient. The Sub-Collector suggests the enclosed form. I have the honour therefore to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain orders for adopting this or some simpler form.
