of the translation of M. Nalet's letter it is in Contemplation to repatriate the man alone; and as it is probable he will refuse to go without his family the whole object of the petition will be undone, which is most probably the French desire.
There is yet time to urge this if July is the earliest date of departure of the next batch of repatriated Emigrants.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obd. Servant
