OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL

WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Madras, 17 February 1893.

From

SURGEON MAJOR-GENERAL W. F. DEFABECK, M.D.,

SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Madras,

To

THE Chief Secy. to Government
Public Department,

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No. 107 of the 30th ultimo, I have the honor to report that Assistant Surgeon V. V.
Patanher who was on sick leave has died. This causes a second vacancy in the grade of assistant surgeons to be filled from amongst private candidates by open competition.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. F. Defabek
Surgeon-General with the Govt. of Madras

Calcutta, the 30th January 1893.

SIR,

I AM directed to reply to your telegram dated the 26th November last, in which the Government of Madras requested that eight candidates might be selected at the open competition for the Indian Civil Service in 1893 for employment in the Madras Presidency.

2. In the schedule attached to the Government of India's Despatch* No. 41, dated the 22nd July 1890, the number of cadre posts in the Madras Presidency, including appointments under the Government of India, was fixed at 116, and the strength of the service required to maintain these posts and provide for officers on leave and in training, at 160. These figures were subsequently raised to 117 and 161, respectively (vide this Department's letter No. 298, dated 24th June 1892). The annual normal rate of recruitment at 4.31 per cent. on the total strength of the service is about seven. In paragraph 6 of the Despatch of July 1890 the Government of India recommended that ten recruits over and above the normal rate should be recruited during the next five years to bring the service in the Madras Presidency up to its requisite strength, thus raising the total recruitment during the quinquennial period commencing from the year 1890 to 45.

3. The total recruitment during the five years being 45, the Government of India estimated, after very careful consideration, that it should be distributed in the proportion of 37 to the Indian Civil Service and 8 to the Provincial Service as follows:—

	1st year (1890).	2nd year (1891 and 1892).	3rd year (1893).	4th year (1894).	5th year (1895).	TOTAL.
Indian Civil Service	7	8	7	8	7	= 37
Provincial Service	2	1	2	1	2	= 8

Six candidates recruited in the year 1890 were appointed to the Madras Presidency in 1892. In connection with the raising of the limit of age and the reduction of the period of probation of selected candidates from two years to one year, the Government of India arranged, in communication with the Secretary of State, that four candidates should be selected at the open competition in 1891, and five in 1892. These nine candidates will come out to India in 1893. The number of officers to be selected this year according to the estimate made in 1890, is seven only. As there appear to be no special reasons for the proposed recruitment of eight officers, and as the strength of the service in the Madras Presidency does not seem to require any further addition to the number fixed in 1890, the Governor General in Council has recommended to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India that seven candidates should be selected at the open competition in 1893 (to arrive in 1894) for employment in the Madras Presidency.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. Hewitt

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
