 LETTER: 30
 TO
 The Secretary to Govt. of India,
 DESPATCHED
 21 FEB 98
 IN M.S.

SIR,
 I am directed to inform you that the 30th
 January 1898, No. 132, regarding the recruitment of the Civil Service.
 2. In para 3 it is indicated that the total recruitment during the financial year 1890-91 was 15 and that the Govt.
 of India has estimated that this number should be distributed in the proportion of 8 to the Indian Civil Service and 8 to the Provincial Service.
 3. In para 3 of Mr. Price's letter of 10-12-97, No. 376, it was pointed out that twelve officers should have been recruited during the period 1890-90, but that including Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao and excluding Mr. Venkata Jaga Rao only nine appointments had been made in this Presidency. Sanction was accordingly requested to the immediate recruitment of two officers ^{for} the Provincial Service & to the addition of one appointment to the recruitment to be made at the end of this year.

+ Submitted that this will save much time. If they are recd. by the Chief Secretary, a day at least
 is lost in forwarding them.
 C.
 I do not see any objection
 in requiring the application to be forwarded to the Chief Secy. C.

Note. With reference to the instruction in Council that the question of the recruitment of one Dy. Col. per annum should be looked up, reference is solicited to the following-para 10 of the Govt's letter on p. 132
 of the book file (passage marked) & para 10 of G. O. S. letter on p. 204 of the book file (passage marked)
 It will be seen that the recruitment of one Dy. Col. per annum was to provide for the local appointments, and to take the place of the recruitment for the Statutory service. This recruitment is, it is submitted, what the G. O. S.
 letter of 10-12-97, No. 376, refers to as the Provl. Service recruitment.

16.2. It is quite clear from the above passages that the Government intend to complete the recruitment for the local appointments
 by the end of the year 1898 (by which time we are due to fill) sufficient for the requirements.

Calcutta, the January 1893.

SIR,

I AM directed to reply to your telegram dated the 26th November last, in which the Government of Madras requested that eight candidates might be selected at the open competition for the Indian Civil Service in 1893 for employment in the Madras Presidency.

2. In the schedule attached to the Government of India's Despatch* No. 41, dated the 22nd July 1890, the number of cadre posts in the Madras Presidency, including appointments under the Government of India, was fixed at 116, and the strength of the service required to man these posts and provide for officers on leave and in training, at 160. These figures were subsequently raised to 117 and 161, respectively (vide this Department's letter No. 298, dated 24th June 1892). The annual normal rate of recruitment at 4.31 per cent. on the total strength of the service is about seven. In paragraph 6 of the Despatch of July 1890 the Government of India recommended that ten recruits over and above the normal rate should be recruited during the next five years to bring the service in the Madras Presidency up to its requisite strength, thus raising the total recruitment during the quinquennial period commencing from the year 1890 to 45.

3. The total recruitment during the five years being 45, the Government of India estimated, after very careful consideration, that it should be distributed in the proportion of 37 to the Indian Civil Service and 8 to the Provincial Service as follows:—

	1st year (1890).	2nd year (1891 and 1892).	3rd year (1893).	4th year (1894).	5th year (1895).	TOTAL.
Indian Civil Service	7	8	7	8	7	= 37
Provincial Service	2	1	2	1	2	= 8

Six candidates recruited in the year 1890 were appointed to the Madras Presidency in 1892. In connection with the raising of the limit of age and the reduction of the period of probation of selected candidates from two years to one year, the Government of India arranged, in communication with the Secretary of State, that four candidates should be selected at the open competition in 1891, and five in 1892. These nine candidates will come out to India in 1893. The number of officers to be selected this year according to the estimate made in 1890, is seven only. As there appear, to be no special reasons for the proposed recruitment of eight officers, and as the strength of the service in the

SIR,

I AM directed to reply to your telegram dated the 26th November last, in which the Government of Madras requested that eight candidates might be selected at the open competition for the Indian Civil Service in 1893 for employment in the Madras Presidency.

2. In the schedule attached to the Government of India's Despatch* No. 41,

As there appear, to be no special reasons for the proposed recruitment of eight officers, and as the strength of the service in the Madras Presidency does not seem to require any further addition to the number fixed in 1890, the Governor General in Council has recommended to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India that seven candidates should be selected at the open competition in 1893 (to arrive in 1894) for employment in the Madras Presidency.
