My dear Mr. Galton.

In reply to your D.O. of the 23rd inst. I am directed to submit a statement showing the number of papers pending in this office on the 15th August 1892 (Mr. Levy joined on the 17th); the number of receipts and disposals up to the 24th instant; and the balance still pending. Considering the recent intervention of the Christmas holidays, which has naturally thrown back work a good deal, Government will, the Board trusts, admit that the large diminution in arrears is satisfactory, and that good use has been made of the assistance which Mr. Levy's deputation has afforded. At the same time a large number of big papers, many of the total of papers - pending, 968

were received during and after the holidays.

CHIEF SECRETARY
27 JAN 93
REVENUE BOARD OFFICE, (Land Revenue),
MADRAS.
25th Jan'y 1893

My dear Walton,

Levy's special appointment expires on the 17th February, and unless the sanction of the Secretary of State is received before that date for the new appointment of Asst. Secretary, Meyer will be left single-handed.

For obvious reasons the Board cannot write through its Secretary on a matter personally affecting him, and as pro tem the Senior Land Revenue Member I beg leave, for myself & for the Fann who concurs with what I am writing, to draw the attention of of Government to the pressing need for the continuance of assistance to the Secretary.

The Secretary & the Special Officers are now fairly abreast of their work with the exception of some important forest & legislative papers that have perforce had to lie over. But if Levy goes we shall at once begin to slide again into the chaos of arrears in face of which him broke down.

Major now begins work when he rises in the morning and works in at office till 8 p.m. or thereabouts and when he left Madras at the beginning of the Christmas holidays he appeared to me to have distinctly 'run down' since I joined the Board in August, though the change seems to have set him up again.

I gather from conversation with him that — as is perfectly patent to myself — he does not feel able to cope single-handed with the work, and that he would rather take furlough than court inevitable failure plus the probability — if not certainty — of losing his health like his predecessor. He has been in India 11 years and if the number of absences made a medical certificate necessary, I can hardly doubt — it would be readily given. Major's exceptional ability & industry are too well-known to require comment from me, and I need only say I should deplore his departure.

To secure the maintenance of present arrangements I would venture to suggest that the Govt of India be requested to sanction Livy's re-appointment on special duty, pending receipt of the Secretary of State's orders on the reference before him.

It would be unfortunate to have another break & to lose Livy now that he has made himself master of his work.

Liverson from long experience both as Secretary and as Member, knows the whole question far more intimately than I can pretend to do, and with I am sure confirm all I have said as to the necessity for continued & unbroken aid to the Secretary.

Yours sincerely

A. H. H. H.

My dear Meyer,

As the period of Levy's special duty in the Board's Office will expire on the 16th instant; I am directed to ask that a report may be submitted as soon as possible on the work done during the time of his employment - and as to the progress made in clearing off the arrears.

Yours Sincerely
