SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 296 dated the 13th February 1893, Public Department, I have the honor to state that Mr. G. F. J. Powers was entitled for joining his appointment at Mangalore to 13 days subsidiary leave excluding Sundays not actually spent in travelling. As he landed at Madras on the 19th December 1892 and took charge of his appointment on the forenoon of the 14th January 1893, he stayed his subsidiary leave by 11 days. The calculation is made on the assumption that he did not travel on Sundays. If he travelled on Sundays, the period of overstay will be 13 days.

istrict, notably the proposals for the agement of Abkari matter in the ensuing year (a subject to which he had devoted much attention and with which I, knowing nothing of South Canara, was not so well qualified to deal). I accordingly proceeded to Mangalore after the holidays, sailing up the coast from Calicut in a native vessel as I could not get a Steamer to suit; and took charge from Mr.
Brodie on the morning of the 14th instant, ~~from~~ from which date his furlough had originally been gazetted to begin. Mr. Brodie had by this time disposed of the matters with which he wished to deal and had on the previous day (13th) completed a ^{very} ~~very~~ ^{im}inuous report to the Board of Revenue on the Abkari of the District.

By this time the subsidiary leave admissible to me under ordinary circumstances had I understand been exceeded. I have not yet received any objection Statement from the Accountant General's Office, but to anticipate possible future objection I request that Government will be pleased to extend my subsidiary leave to the 13th January. The circumstances are I think such as to warrant the application the case of article 198 of the Civil Service Regulations.
