INDIA OFFICE,
London, 26th January 1893.

Revenue,
No. 9.

To His Excellency the Most Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS,

I forward herewith a copy of a letter, with its enclosure, received from the Foreign Office, on the subject of the International Medical Congress to be held at Rome in September next, for such action in the matter as Your Excellency may consider advisable.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD MARQUIS,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

KIMBERLEY.

Dated Foreign Office, London, the 12th December 1892.

From—Sir Edward GRAY, Bart., M.P., Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs,

To—The Under Secretary of State for India.

I am directed by the Earl of Rosebery to transmit to you herewith a translation of a Note from the Italian Ambassador at this Court, asking that special leave may be granted to medical men holding official appointments in India to attend the International Medical Congress at Rome, and I am to request that you will move the Earl of Kimberley to inform His Lordship what reply should be sent to this application.

Translation of a note from the Italian Ambassador, dated the 8th December 1892.

The Committee of the 11th International Medical Congress to be held at Rome next year has been informed that many medical men residing in India are anxious to be present at the Congress. The Committee is also aware that those of them who hold official or Government appointments in India are not allowed to absent themselves without the permission of the British Government.

Under these circumstances I have been instructed to request Your Excellency to use your good offices with the proper department with a view to special leave being, if possible, granted to those Indian medical men who may wish to attend the International Congress, which is to take place at Rome at the end of September 1893.

(Sanitary)

Sir,

In continuation of the Circular from this office No. ¹³/₆₉₄, dated the 13th December 1892, I am directed to forward a copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India No. 9 (Revenue), dated the 26th January 1893, and enclosures, and to suggest that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, Medical officers entitled to and desiring leave of absence for the purpose of attending the Medical Congress at Rome should, if possible, be allowed leave.

I have the honour to be,
Sir
Your most obedt. servant,

J. G. Melitus

Under Secretary to the Govt. of India.
