SIR,

In reply to your letter No. 63 of the 30th January last, I am directed to say that on consideration of the reports received from the Governments of Madras and Bengal, the Governor General in Council decided that the consolidated fee of Rs. 3/ at present levied under Sections 38 and 73 of Act XXI of 1883 for every emigrant embarking for the Colonies should be maintained for three years longer.

I am accordingly to request that instructions may be recorded for the submission of a further report with a statement of receipts and expenditure early in January 1896, to enable the Government of India to consider then whether any change in the fee would be advisable. In the preparation of the next returns, receipts and charges on account of inland Emigration should be carefully excluded.
