NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

Perhaps the Chief Secretary would like to take this into Council to settle the point regarding the department in which M. R. Ramachandra Rao is to be gazetted.

The allusion in Sir H. Stokes' note is to the note on page 7 of those in ~~the~~ the original of G.O. 116. 12. 92. No. 875/6 (marked with red tape ~~not~~ 7) -

~~Department of the Post.~~
~~services will be developed in course~~
~~of time.~~ The Deputy ~~Commissioner, Bangalore, has transferred~~ to the Public department it is submitted that to do this now ~~will~~ ^{could} cause confusion. There are many points in connection with the Provincial service which are far from clear at present but ~~there~~ ^{which} will ~~be~~ ^{be} ~~settled~~ ^{terminated} in time. This is really the first appl. to the Provincial Service and it will be some time before others are made. It is thought therefore that the present system, ~~of dealing~~ under which the appls. of Dy.
Colls. are dealt with in the (Revenue department, ~~can~~ ^{might} continue for some time
longer - or at all events till all preliminary ~~is~~ connection with the Prov. Service have been finally settled.

It is the Govt. wish place Mr.
R. Ramachandra Rao on a par with other Statutory Civilians, but it is respectfully submitted that his case is very different from theirs. He was distinctly told ^{first} on Sept. 18 June 1890,
No. 438, what his future position would be this grievance, if any,
have not the same foundation
as those of the Statutory Civilians proper.

There is, of course, no objection to the more expediting ^{particular} in this case being done in Public
but this should, it is submitted, be on the understanding that the general question of the transfer of Dy. Col. appts. to "Public" is to lie over for the present.

Q.P.

Order 18 January 93 No. 27.

The present scale of Deputy Collectors will, under the sanction contained in the telegram from the Govt. of India read above, be increased by the addition of an appointment to the fifth class.
The necessary action as regards sanctioning Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao will be taken in the Revenue department.

It appears to me desirable that this shd. be dealt with in the Public Dept. If Mr. R.
Ramachandra Rao is treated as the other Deputy Collectors in the Revenue Dept. it will lead point to his and similar objections and I am convinced that he will if so treated, resign - which in my opinion wd. be a pity. This class of public servant shd. be treated with all consideration possible. They have received but little up to now. G.O. of 16. 12. 92

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers :—

G.O., dated 18th June 1890, No. 438, Public.

Read—the following letter from C. J. LYALL, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 31st May 1890, No. 344 :—

With reference to the correspondence ending with your telegram of the 16th

* In letter No. 263-A (Confidential), dated 3rd April 1890, I am directed to say that out of the three persons nominated * for appointment under the Statute of 1870 to the Madras Presidency, the Governor-General in Council provisionally approves, under paragraph 2 of Home Department Notification No. 1954, dated the 22nd August 1879, of the nomination of Ramachandra Rao. Ramachandra Rao can therefore be admitted on probation to employment as an Assistant Collector and Magistrate, but the Governor-General in Council does not propose to issue any order of confirmation, inasmuch as, in accordance with the decision conveyed in Home Department letter No. 635, dated the 30th October 1889, Ramachandra Rao will be included in the Provincial Service as soon as it is created and be liable to all the rules and regulations which may be applicable to that service.

2. With reference to paragraph 8 of your letter No. 263-A (Confidential), dated the 3rd April 1890, I am to say that the Government of Madras has correctly interpreted the intention of the Government of India, which is that the candidate now nominated should receive an assurance of his preferential claim to listed appointments before the other members of the Provincial Service who have not been appointed under the Statute of 1870, subject of course to the proviso that he will not be appointed to any post for which he has not acquired sufficient experience and proved himself to be in other respects fully qualified.

Order—dated 18th June 1890, No. 438, Public.

M.R.Ry. R. Ramachandra Rao will be informed that His Excellency the Governor-General in Council has provisionally approved of his nomination for appointment under the Statute of 1870. He has accordingly been gazetted as Probationary Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate of the district, Trichinopoly.

2. M.R.Ry. R. Ramachandra Rao will also be informed that, as soon as the Provincial Service is created, he will be included in it and will be liable to all the rules and regulations which may be applicable to that service. He will be regarded as Chief Secretary.

To M.R. Ry. R. Ramachandra Rao.

Extract from Resolution of the Government of India in the Home Department (Public), dated 21st April 1892, No. 9 Public—1342-1352.

Para. 7. . . . Those Statutory Civilians who were appointed in the various provinces in 1889 and 1890, on the understanding that they would be transferred to the Provincial Service when it was constituted, should now be gazetted to their appropriate places in that service. In accordance with the decision of the Secretary of State they will, like other Statutory Civil Servants who join the Provincial Service, be understood to have a preferential claim for promotion to the scheduled posts (subject, of course, to the special claims of members of the Civil Service of India and officers of the Commissions appointed before 1882) over the other members of that service.

Extract from letter from the President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 31st August 1892, No. 614.

Mr. Ramachandra Rao passed in all divisions except E, in which he has to be examined. The language being Malayalam, the Divisional Examining Committee at Trichinopoly were unable to conduct his examination in that language. Arrangements will be made for his examination and the result will be submitted to Government at an early date.

Letter from the President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th September 1892, No. 679, contained in G.O., dated 16th December 1892, No. 875, Public.

With reference to paragraph 2 of my letter of the 31st ultimo, No. 614, reporting result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 18th July 1892 and following days, I have the honour to report that Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao, Assistant Collector, doing duty under the Collector of Tanjore, was examined and found qualified in Division E. He heads the list of the Assistants who passed according to the Second or Higher Standard in July last. The increased allowance to which he is entitled may be passed to him from the 22nd July 1892—the date on which his examination in other subjects was concluded. Mr. Ramachandra Rao was prepared to pass his examination in Malayalam (Division E) on this date, but the Committee were, as already reported, unable to examine him.

Extract from letter to the Government of India, Home Department, dated 16th December 1892, No. 876, Public.

Para. 9. I am further directed to address you on the question of the position to be assigned to . . . Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao, appointed in 1890 on the understanding that he would be included in the Provincial Service on its creation.

Para. 10. Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao, who has completed the Higher and Lower Standard examinations prescribed for Junior Civilians, is at present in receipt of the pay of a Statutory Probationer, Rs. 250. One post of passed Assistant has been declared open to the Provincial Service, its equivalent in that service being a Deputy Collectorship on Rs. 300. There are four Statutory Civilians in this Presidency holding permanent appointments as Assistants and the claims of these to the appointment of passed Assistant are superior to that of Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao. These officers will, in ordinary course, receive promotion to the post of Head Assistant Collector before Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao is promoted to the third grade of Deputy Collector, and His Excellency in Council proposes to appoint him to the post in the 5th grade on Rs. 300 with effect from the date of his having completed the Higher Standard examination.
