materials plus one fifth. The value being Rs. 27-10-0, the whole can be acquired by a payment of Rs. 33-2-0.

3 I have had applications for a few of the Coins from various gentlemen - European and native - but they are scattered all over India and could not arrange to purchase the Coins at auction - and the Superintendent of the Central Museum states that he also has an application from Poona, besides requiring some for the Collection at the Museum.

4. I have therefore the honor to recommend that the Treasure may be acquired at a cost of Rs. 33-12-0 and all applicants referred to the Superintendent of the Central Museum.

COIMBATORE NO. 97

J. Shorrocks Esquire, Collector of Coimbatore

To,

The Chief Secretary of Government
Madras.

Sir,

On the 24th February last I adjudged to the finder and the owner of the locality, a treasure trove of 100 "punch marked" Buddhist Coins and the Superintendent of the Central Museum states that he will take for the Museum Collection or for sale, all which have not been asked for by other applicants.

2. I have the honor to request instructions as to whether the Coins should be acquired under Section 16 of the Treasure Trove Act paying for them before the 24th April next the value of the materials.
