From adding the Easter Holidays to his privilege leave provided <sup>that</sup> as in my Case, the deputation allowances begin on the 1st day of work after the holidays.

3. According to the article (note) the office is "closed for business" during gazetted holidays, e.g. during the Easter holidays; and "the leave of the absentee and the rearrangement of allowances if any depending on his departure shall begin from and including the first day thereafter (i.e. after the departure) on which the office is open for business." That is, in my Case, April 5th. It seems to me as if when the Government of India ruled that "deputation after holidays is deputation" within the meaning of this article, they meant expressly to allow the Concession, and not to refuse it, which would be to refuse a favor for no conceivable reason, seeing that no additional charge is imposed on the State.

4. May I beg the favor of definite orders after consideration of this letter.

as to whether I must return to duty on June 11th or June 18th. I give over Charge to Mr. Jardine this afternoon. My address is: "The East India United Service Club, 16 St. James's Square, London, S.W."

5. If my leave must date from March 30th inclusive, of course the deputation for the six days of the Easter holidays will be drawn by the officer to whom I hand over charge, until Mr. Stuart joins, so that I submit that Government gains nothing by refusing the Concession referred to.

6. I would ask one more favor. May I be supplied with a copy of the Government of India order referred to?

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>.
