mining operations but it appears that as Mr. Stoney was unable to obtain funds, no work was actually done and finally the men were left destitute, in which condition they found their way to the Deputy Commissioner. The latter was instructed ^{by this Government} to send them to the Superintendent of Emigration at Calcutta who reports that the men to the number of 40 have arrived and that he has accommodated them for the present in a Contractor's depot. The Superintendent has been instructed

Dated Calcutta, the 11th April, 1893.
Issued 12th A.L.

Sir,

I am directed to state, for the information of the Government of Madras, that 41 native miners were recently imported from the Mysore Gold Mines (Mandkeri on the Malabar Coast) by Mr. J. M. Stoney who had obtained from ^{the} Government a mining concession in the Porahat Estate in the district of Singhbhum in this Province. The men were taken to Singhbhum to the locality where
