Sir,

I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether the Rules regarding the holding of lands by uncovenanted Civil Service officers in civil employment apply to the holding of lands by such officers, when employed in Native States in such territories. I make this enquiry as Mr. H. Krishnaswamy Row Chief Justice of the High Court of Travancore has enquired whether there is any objection to his applying to the Travancore Sirkar for 200 acres of waste land to raise a coconut plantation.

2. I enclose a copy of his letter dated the 17th December 1892 and beg

this State, I further request that you will kindly obtain for me such permission.

President of Travancore & Cochin

Sir,

I intend to apply to Travancore Government for 200 acres of waste land with a view to raise thereon a coconut plantation. As I am a British officer on deputation, I entertain a doubt as to whether I can acquire landed property in this State in the manner indicated. I therefore request that you will be good enough to ascertain the views of the British Government on this point.

In these days of hard competition I find it absolutely necessary to bring up one of my sons in the profession of agriculture. I need hardly say that there can be no agriculture without land. The waste land I intend to take up is within the settled taluqs, and its assessment is already fixed.

If the permission of the British Government is necessary for the acquisition of waste lands
