No. 694

FROM

J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E.,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

TO

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Home Department.
Medical.

Calcutta, the 13th December 1892.

SIR,

I AM directed to forward copies of the communications marginally noted, and to enquire if there are any Medical Officers in civil employ serving in the Madras Presidency who are expected to be on leave in England in 1893, and to whom the office of delegate to the International Medical and Surgical Congress to be held at Rome during the year could be entrusted.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. Hewett.

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 260, dated Calcutta, the 22nd October 1892.

From—CHEVALIER J. GALLIAN, Italian Consul General at Calcutta.

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department.

From the 24th September to the 1st October of next year the eleventh International Medical and Surgical Congress will be held at Rome, with the assistance, as is usual and as also took place in 1890 at Berlin, of the Medical and of the official delegates of the Governments of the different nations. I am consequently desired by the King's Government to express to the Government of India the pleasure that it would give him if the latter Government were to be represented by official delegates, and if the Physicians and Civil Surgeons of that Empire were to spontaneously join the Congress. For that purpose I am also requested by the General Organization Committee to send the enclosed letter to His Excellency the Viceroy, which I would beg you to lay before him with my profound respects.

Kindly accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest respect.

ROME;

The 20th August 1892.

To His Lordship The Viceroy of the Colonies at Great Britain and Ireland in East India, Calcutta.

MY LORD,

In 1893 Italy will celebrate in Rome the triumph of the science which devotes, efforts, and labours to softening mankind's burden of misery; Medicine!

From the 24th of September to the 1st of October 1893 shall take place the eleventh session of the International Medical Congress, and thus will be fulfilled the wish expressed by the Congressists at the precedent meeting at Berlin, 1890.

This pacific meeting, dedicated to scientific work, shall not only affirm the power of human intellect, but will, in the meantime, newly demonstrate that, under the dominion of science vanish the rivalries of nations, and humanity becomes the common home.

The Central Committee, bearer of the vows of all Italian Physicians, takes the liberty to pray through Your Lordship, the most honourable Government of the Colonies in East India of Great Britain and Ireland, to partake at this meeting by means of special delegates, and fervently hopes that, considering the sublime aim its efforts are directed to, this prayer may be kindly granted.

With the profession of profound devotion have the honour to remain for the Central Committee

Your Lordship's most obedient,

C. G. BACCILLI,

President.

Secretary.

SIR,

In returning the letter from the Government of India referred to me for report with your endorsement of 20/12 dated the 21st December 92
I have the honor to state that of the Madras Medical Officers who are now on leave, Brigade
Surgeon Lieut Colonel E. F. Drake

J. C. Smith are the only officers who are expected to be in England about the time the International Medical and Surgical Congress is to be held at Rome, as their leave does not expire till in November 1893, and the office of delegate to the Congress could with with advantage be entrusted to them should they accept it as I have no doubt they will.

I have the honor to be
