Order 23 Jan 93 k 40

In G.O. d/ 20.9.88, No. 920, the Protector of Emigrants was authorised to exercise the powers conferred on Magistrates by 3, 6, 8 and 9 of the supplementary rules issued in G.O. d/ 15.5.88, No. 510. It was further directed that recruiters wishing to carry on operations in the town of Madras should report themselves & produce their licenses before the Commr. of Police.

And the Commissioner of Police whom I asked informs me that the Police do not exercise any Control over the godowns kept by the Straits Settlements Recruiters in Madras. The practice of granting licenses under G.O. 920-922 has continued till now, but, feeling doubtful as to the propriety of granting licenses to Recruiters without any Control over them, I make this reference for instructions for my future guidance.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obed^t servant

W. S. S. S.

Protector of Immigrants.

18th Sept 1907. The Rules do not appear to provide for any licensing of godowns in which cottons are lodged until they are transported to the coast but it is desirable that control over the operations of Recruiters should be exercised and this can best be done by the Protector who grants the licenses. If the rule passed under G.O. 922 2nd Sept 1908 is cancelled then there will be no authority in Madras competent to check and control the operations of Recruiters here.
