Head Report dated July 2, 1892, ref on.
C. no. $\frac{802}{7}$ from the Head Assistant Collector and the Connected Papers.

Head also the principal papers in the record of C. C. no. 209 of 1892 on the file of the Sub Magistrate of Chongam.

One Sankaran while working in his paramba on the 12th August 1891 dug up some old coins, and other articles valued at about Rs 50. The finder was prosecuted under Section 20 of the Treasure Trove Act and convicted.
The usual notices have been published but the treasure is unclaimed.

Under Section 20 of the Act the finder's share vests in government, and as no other claimant has appeared, the property will be credited to government.
