Doubtful if an equally fit person could then be secured. Accordingly, I would propose to retain the present incumbent by making his appointment permanent at a pay of Rs. 9 per mensem.

No. 261.

From

Dr E. Hultzsch,

Government Epigraphist,

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government might be pleased to sanction the following proposed alteration in my establishment.

2. In G.O., dated 23rd March 1892, No. 365, Financial, the Government sanctioned the appointment of a third (third person) peon for each field season. This measure has been very successful, as a much larger number of inscriptions were copied on the last tour than in previous years. If, however, the present temporary peon who has acquired considerable skill in copying inscriptions, leaves the Government service at the beginning of the current month, a new peon will have to be trained in November next. This would entail loss of time, and it remains doubtful
