(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture).

Dated 20th May 1893.

No. 2998 his.

READ the following letter from the Deputy Director of Land Records and Agriculture, (Land Records Branch)
dated 12th May 1893 No. $\frac{80}{880}$:-

I have the honor to report that you will be good enough, with reference to the enclosed Account
- ant General's Pay⁺ Slip No. $\frac{A.B.3}{140}$ - dated 10th instant to make arrangement to fix the allowance I am entitled to for performing the duties of Deputy Director of Land Records and Agriculture (Land Records Branch).

2. I anticipate that my work as Acting Secretary to the Commission of Salt and Abkari Separate Revenue will fully occupy my time, but the Deputy Director's Office will be employed in compiling my notes &c for the revision of the Village and Taluk Manual accounts under my supervision and such spare time as I can afford will be devoted to the preparation of the Revenue Inspector's Manual. There will ^{be} also a small amount of miscellaneous work.

3. I would ask permission to draw at least the Tentage allowance Rs 35 per mensem as I have to maintain my tents in any case.

Resolution

Resolution

Submitted to Government with reference to article 184 (ii) of the Civil Service Regulations with the Board's recommendation that in addition to the sum of Rs 155-5-0 which Mr. Wynch may be permitted to draw so that his aggregate salary may not exceed the maximum of Rs 1,500 under Clause (III) of the same article, he may be allowed to draw ^{the} tentage allowance of Rs 35 per mensem as he will have to maintain his tents in any case.

CURRENT 1741

Mr. L. M. Wynne having been appointed to act as Secretary to the Commissioners of Salt, Arkins and Separate Revenue without prejudice to his own appointment as Deputy Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, was allowed under clause (1), Article 184, Civil Service Regulations, Rs 13 44-10-4 per mensem, the highest salary he would draw if he officiated as Secretary alone. For the duties of Deputy Director, Mr. Wynne may be permitted to draw under clause (11) of that article such allowance not exceeding Rs 516-15-1 (being half the salary of the appointment) as Government may think proper to fix. But unless Government dispenses with clause III and makes the declaration prescribed in Rule 1 of that article, Mr. Wynne's total salary will be restricted to Rs 1500 per mensem.
The pay of the Secretary to the Board, who is the more highly paid of the two appointments. Mr. Wynne is entitled in addition to the salary that may be fixed under clause (11), to the local allowance of Rs 250/- and the bentage of Rs 35/- attached to the appointment of Deputy Director.

For Orders.

It was understood from the concluding para of Mr. Rawlin's D.O. of the 27th March (in G.O. of 26 April 1893, R. No. 445) that Mr. Wynch would draw Rs 1500. It appears, however, that the Acc. Genl. has permitted him to draw Rs 1344-10-1 as Dy. Director acting as Secretary to the Salt Commr. and that it is for Govt. to fix his allowance for performing the duties of Dy. Director. It was decided in Council on the 28th March that Mr. Wynch's pay for the two appts. should be fixed at Rs 1,500. This he would get by the Govt. fixing his allowances for the duties of Dy. Director at Rs 155-11-1. The A.G. reports, however, that in addition he is entitled to the local allowance of Rs 250, the tenure of Rs 35% attached to the appt. of Dy. Director. Mr. Wynch asks to be permitted to draw his tenure and the Board supports his request. The effect of allowing him to draw the local allowance of 250% will be to raise his salary to Rs 1750. (exclusive of tenure)

FOR ORDERS.

I don't think the Rs 250 is a local allowance at all. It is called a "special allowance" in the G.O. put up, but the letter recommending against the arrangement this Govt. regarded it as a special allowance and the A.G. has been asked to pay it as such. Show him if it is not a special allowance.

2 Nov. 89 R. 705.

It seems from that the pay of Mr. Wynch's appt. ought to be considered (1033-14.3 + 200 =) 1233-14.3. 1234-10-1, which would not draw more than Rs 1500 plus tenure.

1233-14.3 plus Rs 200 (out 1253-14.3) draw Rs 1450 in ap. allowance under 184(i) under 184(ii) (which he would not be permitted to draw) he would get only Rs 1500 salary in all. Under 184(i) Rs 15-1-9 should be sanctioned, and Rs 35 tenure. Uls

I think the Rs 250 is pay - and that the Acc. Genl. is wrong in treating it as a local allowance. Mr. Wynch's total pay should accordingly be limited to Rs 1500 a month. Send to the Hon.ble Member also. Uls Order 24th July 1893. No. 573.

The Rs 250/- p^r. m^o drawn by Mr. L. M. Wynch is a special and not a local allowance (para 4 of G.O. of 25. August 1891, No. 775 Revenue) and it should be regarded in the light of an addition to the rate of salary drawn by the officer next below him in the regular line of the service who does not hold a special appointment. His pay as Dy. Director is therefore Rs 1,083-14-3 + 250 = Rs 1,283-14-3, and as Acting Secy. to the Commr. of Salt, Alkari Revenue he would, under articles 117 and 125 of the C.S. R., draw Rs 1,500. The Govt. does not consider that any addition should be made to this salary for the time period during which Ans The Hon'ble Member has taken the maximum a.g. allowance admissible under §125, but the ordinary acting allowance is $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay of the app^t = $\frac{1}{2}$ of 500 = 250 which will under §117 be restricted to Rs 216-1-9.

The draft is sub^d for approval.
