[Despatch Abstract.]

Considering that the retrenchment by the staff of the 4 ceps travelling allowance ^{drawn} by Mr. R. R. Ramachandra Rao over got is correct; inasmuch as the latter that as leave suspension he comes under the rules in Part III Chapter XIV of Part II Chapter XIX of the C. P. R. & that he will not be required to pass any further examinations.

SIR,

With reference to your official memo, No 1164, dated the 3rd July 1893, I have the honour to state that M. R. By R.
Ramachendra Rao Avargal has been called upon to refund Rs 55/- on account of travelling allowance overdrawn by him as per memo annexed.

I have the honour to be,

SUBJECT.

Slating that Mr. P. Ramachandra Rao ^{has} been called upon to refund Rs 55/- on acct of travelling allowance over drawn by him

Note The point raised by Mr. The Gov. re the use of "Esquire" in the case of Statutory Civilians is being looked up.

Order. 25th July 1893. No. 576.

The Govt. considers that the retrenchment by the Acct. Genl of the excess travelling allowance drawn by Mr. R. R. R. Ramachandra Rao ^{is} correct.

2. With reference to para 3 of his letter, Mr. R. R. R. Ramachandra Rao ^{will} be informed that the leave and Pension rules which govern the Statutory Civil Service are not the rules which govern him but that he falls under the rules in Part III. Chapter IV and Part IV Chapter I of the C. S. R.

He will not be required to pass any further examinations.

3. It is ~~not~~ observed that the use of "Esquire" in connection with the name of Mr. R. R. R. Ramachandra Rao ^{is} by both himself & the Board of Revenue is irregular & contrary to the instructions in G. O. of 13. 11. 89, No. 912 Public. The designation "Sub-Deputy Collector" is meaning ^{but} unauthorized and shall not again be used. (From Order)

Note

With reference to H. E. The Governor's query on a paper recently circulated, in which he raised the question of the mode of address of Covenanted Civilians who are natives of India, it is submitted that there are no orders in which the point is definitely separately dealt with. The G. O. of 1.

letter recorded in G. O. of 8. March 1887, No. 347 This Public, rules that Statutory Civilians should be addressed as "Esquire" and states that this form of address is used in Bombay in the case of Natives of India who are Covenanted Civilians. It may therefore be taken for granted that the use of "Esquire" in the case of the latter class of officers has been recognised by the Govt. of India

It would appear from this that Covenanted Indians & Statutories, who are natives of India should be addressed as Esquire. But do Statutories who elect to join the Provincial Service lose this distinction?

Note

With reference to H. E. The Governor's query above, it is submitted that no orders on the point have been received from the Govt. of India. It is thought however, that Statutories who elect to join the Provincial Service should be treated in this respect like other members of the Prov. Service. Only one Statutory in this Presidency, ~~besides~~ besides Mr. P. Ramachandra Rao (removed), has elected to join the Prov. Service. viz. Mr. C. Ramachandra Aiyar and under the Note & G. O. of 31. Oct 1878, No. 1616 Pub (Appendix to G. O. of 13. 11. 89 No. 912) he, as a Judge, is entitled to be addressed as "Esquire". Mr. R. Ramachandra Rao ~~is~~ was last appointed under the Statutory rules of 1870 but was told at the time of his appointment that he would be included in it on its creation and be liable to all the rules & regulations

Public DEPARTMENT.

No. 17118-1845

From Revenue Dept. and Accountant General

Dated 21st June 1893 & 8th July 1893.

FOR ORDERS.

As a Statutory Civilian, M. R. By L. Ramachandra Rao would be treated for the purposes of the T. A.
Code as a First class officer, drawing double first fare when travelling by rail and 8 as a mile for journeys by road. As a Dy Collector, 5th class, he falls under the second class of officers, drawing double second fare for journeys by rail and 4 as a mile for journeys by road [vide §§ 1096, 1105, and 1127 C. S. R.] He was included in the Provincial Service by G.O. of 18th January 1893, No. 27, with retrospective effect from 22nd July 1892 the date of his having completed the Higher Standard Examination.

2. The Accountant General contends that M. R. By L. Ramachandra Rao should refund the excess T. A. (amounting to Rs 55) drawn by him since the date of his confirmation as a Dy Collector.

3. At first sight it seems some-
-what hard on M. R. By L. Ramachandra Rao that he should be compelled to make this refund which has been necessitated by the retrospective effect given to the order including him in the Provincial Service. It is to be noted however that whilst he is asked to refund Rs 55 as one effect of the

Which he is right.

4. M. R. Ry. Ramachandra Rao, in para 3 of his letter, asks two questions:-

(i) whether the leave and pension rules governing the Statutory Service are the rules that govern him -

To this the answer is in the negative - please see para 12 of India's letter on page 6 and para 14 of this Government's letter on page 41 of Public G.O. of 4th June 1890, No 481 - also the terms of M. R. Ry. Ramachandra Rao's original appointment on page 1 of G.O.
of 18.1.93 No 27.

W.S.A. W

(ii) whether he will be required to pass
any further examinations.

He has already passed the Higher Standard prescribed for Junior Civilians and there seems to be no necessity to make him pass anything more.

W.S.A. W

5. There are two further points calling for orders in C. No 1711.

(i) The use of "Esquire" in connection with the M. R. Ry. Ramachandra Rao's name by himself and the Board of Revenue is irregular and contrary to the orders in G.O. of 13.11.89. No 912 Public.

What about A. C. Dutt and Mahmood
Ghose? Are they Esquires? W

W.S.A. W

(ii) The designation "Scheduled Dy.
Collector" which is used by the Board and M. R. Ramachandra Rao to describe his appt is meaningless and unauthori-
