My dear Willock,

In reply to yours of the 31st ultimo, I am directed to say that Taylor's leave will be granted but that Poorna Pantulu must be put in charge of the whole estate during Taylor's absence.

I am further desired to ask your opinion as to whether the estate is now in such a condition that Poorna Pantulu could efficiently manage it until the Inahareya attains his majority.

Yours sincerely

My dear Pner
In reply to your
of the 18th inst. it would be impossible for Pennington to do both the Manager work and the work. He is heavily in arrears at present himself and would be even more so if he had the discharge of double duty with regard to your business as to whether he could manage the whole estate until the Royal Commission I think he would be out of the question.
His position is a very unpleasant one at present but I give him almost no time what time he can get through and he is a very hard worker.

The Regent comes of age as it will not only save them from oppression for the time but will confer upon them the rights and custom and privileges. I fear that they will have a hard time before them in the future.

I have no reason for saying so, but I feel pretty certain that Purkay is well advised as Dewan when the Regent comes of age which is the best possible reason why he should not have charge of when Jeyhun now.

If we can be heard to take Jeyhun's plan I would suggest that my Agency Manager might act. He is a ~~very~~ good but ~~man~~ and for him please then Purkay.

Yours truly
W. J. W. W.

Of course he ought to be able to get more done by his subordinates but there is just the great difficulty of administration in these. You have to work with a written office and with utterly unreliable human office the area also of the whole salut is too great to be covered by one man.

I am very strongly of the opinion that Purnaggen should not be allowed to take charge of upper regions during the minority. The Rajah is, as I am sorry to say, showing very great signs of turning out a most unwieldy man and would do any nation more harm to serve the best furthering of the rights above the estate it will be a great thing for

I support W.A. Willcock's view that Purnagya should not take charge of the whole estate must be accepted. ~~But I am not sure~~ ~~that he is capable of doing the work.~~ Though I can hardly see that from the Raja's conduct, and I presume the Agent could keep Purnagya in order during the three months. But he says one man can't do the whole work. I believe impossible to send a European Mr. Taylor's place. I would wish to see W. asking who his manager is, what are his qualifications, what his proposed pay; whether he is eligible for transfer to foreign service.

W. 3 June 1893

There are 2 or 3 points in the letter requiring to be carefully attended to.
1. The probability of the Raja's being terribly shocked if the Raja comes of age, unless the protection of the Government is 2. The expediency of allowing Purnagya to be appointed after the Raja's arrival, having view of W.A.'s estimate of his character. 9/7

From The Agent, Vizagapatnam

Dated 16. 7. 93.

FOR ORDERS.

I don't like Mr Willock's proposal at all. It means about to send a clerk on Rs 80 to officiate in an appointment held by a European officer on Sub-Collector's pay. Either the latter is too big for the place, or the other too small, or both. I think it would be better to send a European officer if one can be found. If not I would ask Mr Willock to propose something else, or to send a D. O. Mr. It is only the ten years service rule that is relaxed in the case of Jyoti Estate Service. I think it would be about to give this clerk over 800 Rs a month, and if we give him only Rs 500 we shall have to go to India, who will take objection to a clerk on Rs 80 being put into such an off.

Wlo
20 July.

Send Mr. Laby Thornton there - and let a D. Collector take his division for the three months. Mr. S. is anxious to enter the Pol. Dept. & this will be just the place for him to run a quiet little trial.

W
22 July.

Under clause 2 of article 206 (!!!) of the C.S. R. the sanction of the G. & I. would not be required to the officiating appointment so long as the officiating allowance is regulated in accordance with Part II. Mr. Taylor's being an appt. which is open to and may in practice be held by a Member of the Indian Civil Service, the ag. allowance under § 124 (5) should be regulated by article 125. It is presumed that the Agency Head Clerk's pay is Rs 80, the 120 being an allowance. If taken at 80 his salary as Ag. Manager would be

$$80 + \frac{2}{3} (1,166 - 10 - 8 - 80)$$

$$= 80 + \frac{2}{3} \times 1086 - 10 - 8 = 80 + 724 - 7 = 804 - 7 - 8$$

If taken at 200. it would be

$$200 + \frac{2}{3} (1,166 - 10 - 8 - 200)$$

$$= 200 + \frac{2}{3} \times 966 - 10 - 8 = 200 + 644 - 7 = 844 - 7 - 1$$

So that in either case the salary of No 500. proposed by Mr. Willock would be less than the amount admissible.

Perhaps the Adj. might be referred to on the point?

The other conditions of § 806 will be fulfilled.
