UNDER SECRETARY
1 AUG 93
PUBLIC ET DEPT.

No. P., dated Fort William, the 4th March 1893

From—The Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,
To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

With reference to Military Department Circular No. 20-P., dated 9th September 1890, a copy of which was forwarded with Military Department letter No. 31-P., dated 6th October 1890, I am desired to inform you that from the 1st of April 1893 all work connected with the scheme for the employment of Native Army pensioners in civil capacities will be transferred from the Military Department of the Government of India to the officers in charge of the six recruiting districts named in the margin, to whom all applications should in future be addressed. As it is very desirable that all employers of labour should be informed of the change in the working of the scheme, I am to request that the number of additional copies of the India Army Circular about to be issued notifying the change in the Agency, which will be required for distribution, may be communicated to the Military Department at an early date.

ARMY CIRCULAR.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 15th May 1893.

Clause 73.

NATIVE ARMY.

arrangements for finding civil employment for Native military pensioners through the agency of the district recruiting officers.

With reference to clause 175, India Army Circulars, 1890, it is notified for general information that from the 1st April 1893, the officers in charge of the six recruiting districts named in the margin, have been entrusted with the working of the scheme for the employment of Native military pensioners in civil capacities.

1. Peshawar for Pathans.
2. Rawal Pindi for Punjabi Mahomedans.
3. Sialkot and Dharmasala for Jats.
4. Amritsar for Sikhs.
5. Delhi for Jats and Hindustani Mahomedans.
6. Lucknow for Hindustani Hindus.

2. All applications by Heads of Departments, civil and military officials and the general public for the services of pensioned soldiers, should be made direct to the officer in charge of the district concerned.

3. Lists of men in want of employment similar to those hitherto sent by regiments to the Military Department will be sent, in future, to the district recruiting officer who enlists recruits of the caste of the men concerned. These officers will keep a register of such men, in which the nature of employment which each man desires and is best fitted for, as well as his age, qualifications and character should be recorded.

4. When employers in want of men of any particular class apply to the district recruiting officer concerned, they should state their wants fully and the terms offered. District recruiting officers will use every endeavour to select and send only such men as are in all respects suitable.

5. The district recruiting officer concerned will act as a medium between the employers and pensioners, and will afford any information that may be required on either side, but applicants and employers once placed in communication with each other should ordinarily settle all details between themselves.

6. District recruiting officers will furnish to the Adjutant-General annually on 1st April a return showing—

- (i) Number of applicants for employment on their rolls.
- (ii) Number of men applied for by employers.
- (iii) Number of men supplied.

7. District recruiting officers will have power to strike off the roll the name of any man whom they have reason to consider is in any way unfit for employment.

8. District recruiting officers will have power to enter on the roll the names of any pensioners whom they may consider suitable candidates for employment.

9. Applicants desirous of employment should apply—

- (1) to the officer commanding the regiment to which they belonged, or
- (2) to the district recruiting officer concerned, giving all the particulars required in the form of application shown below.
