NOTE. No precedent can be traced of a similar Comm: from a Governor of Mauritius
The draft follows the precedent in G.O.
7.24. June 1890 R. No. 701. when Sir Arthur Hardlock's appt as Gov. of Ceylon was announced.

The paper was detained as when they came up to me with a draft based on the form used when addressing the Gov. of the French Settlements in India I called for the paper with regard to the Gov. of Ceylon.

GOVERNMENT OF

Aug. 17th 1933.

My Dear Mac Cartie

I send herewith for Mr's signature a reply to Mr
the Gov of Mauritius which I think is in order.

I am sorry for the omission which occurred in the letter first sent to Mr. Fair copies of letters to be signed by the Governor however never pass through his desk are forwarded direct to the I. S.

I enclose the explanation of the Office.

It is some excuse for the copyist that the Draft was not headed correctly in the first instance. That it was not escaped my notice and that apparently of Mr. and Mrs. who passed the Draft.

I did not particularly notice the heading of the Draft as the papers had come up before with another Draft to which I had taken exception and when they came up a second time my attention was turned to the revised Draft itself.

Yours sincerely

Fredrick Schiele

My dear Sir

I return Birmingham.

With ref. to Mr. Pridi remarks.

H.R. the Gov. Supp. steps should be taken to supply the Office with an up to date Whittaker, as the "latest available" is evidently

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

In obedience to C.S.'s note, the following explanation is submitted.

The copy which was submitted in the first instance to H.E. the Governor for signature was made from the draft, which, having been passed by all, the officer unfortunately thought that the address given therein was correct. If there ~~had~~ had been slightest reason to suspect that what was given in the draft was an imperfect form of address, it it would have been checked while copying, just as is done in other cases.

The omission is very much regretted, and it is respectfully submitted that the office will be more careful in future.

A revised copy is now subm for approval.

CS.
Submitted. The latest Whittaker available here shows Mr Jennings as Colonial Secy, without the
"Sir" or "K.C.M.G.". His promotion is recent. J.B.B.
