work will no doubt fall on the new man. The following scale is sub^d.
for approval. It involves an increase of Rs: 35. p. m.

I think a new hand on Rs 20 will suffice. The proposals as they stand are preposterous & amount to nearly doubling the cost.

Order 19 Aug 1893, No 663.

The Govt. is not prepared to do more than sanction an additional clerk on Rs: 20 per man.
seu. This Govt. will then be sufficient for the work.

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Stone House Cotacamund.

SIR,

I have the honor, by desire of the Right Reverend the Bishop, to forward for the favorable consideration of Government the enclosed letter from the Registrar of the Diocese, asking for an additional clerk in his establishment, and for an increase in the allowances for the salaries of his existing three clerks.

2. The addition, amounting to Rupees 75, is asked for on the ground of the large additional work in the Office caused by the order for the returns of Native Christian Marriages [Government Order 17th July 1891, No 585, Public].

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Morley.

With reference to the concluding portion of para 5 of the Registrar General's letter referred to in G.O. & dated 6th April 1893 Nos 276-278, I have the honor to move Government for sanction to increase the Establishment of the Registrar of the Diocese of Madras in view to the efficient performance of the additional work which is created by the recent order of Government dated 17th July 1891, No 585, Public, requiring me to forward Returns of Native Christian Marriages to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages, Madras. This additional work entails, I find, correspondence with over 150 Native Clergymen in this Diocese, ministering to 107,000 souls exclusive of 21,000 catechumens, and irrespective of the usual routine of such correspondence, it involves the receipt
