- (3) — I being the descendant of the Raju and not having a issue to remember me after my death and I am passing great difficulties in want of comfort thereby I beseech Her Majesty the Queen of England and Emperors of Russia as my God of heaven will do me the needful.
- (4) — Prior to my death I wish of Her Majesty that an issue should come forward and my difficulties to be removed.
- (5) — As I am now counting to die and that which is built of mud I request Her Majesty the Empress of India will be pleased to consider the point of my ancestors and grant me a good Rukhs and build me a building in two compartments
- (6) — Your Excellency being the petitioner that of such desc. is considered as a very the world is not compass of wherein a world will my house and which is money as a pension for one day's coffee is the desire of the petitioner.

- (8) — All this I make a solemn confession to your Grace as my God and my rights most justly sowar the law by attributing these sufferings and by go-through the petition patiently in giving the petitioner a reply accordingly.

- (9) — Should your Excellency wish to know that the petitioner is the descendant of the Raju of the Inthar Country and that he is the right Son of
