I think it should be made clear who ^{are} who are not subject to the G.O. of Aug. 1. 1892 - from a misapprehension on this point. Dr.
Hyde has ^{been} put to a great deal of trouble & exaltion unnecessarily - and it does not seem to me right that a man in charge of an onerous and responsible post should be subjected to this - in consequence of a G.O. not being sufficiently clear. The S. G. himself though he says that Dr. Hyde was in civil employ in 1874 when the rules first came into force does not appear to think that this fact entitles him to exemption - pleads for the indulgence of Govt.

I think the Surgeon General sh^d. be told that if there are any others in his department on the same footing as Dr. Hyde, he sh^d. inform them that they are not expected to pass the examⁿ what as laid down in G.O. of Aug. 1. 1852. ^{in case} what he will

I don't see how the order is in fault

Lt. D. W. Dwyer was not
