P. Theagaraya Mudally;
pay Rs. 60; debts Rs. 1628; his second petition; not due to extravagance but law suits;
case subd. for favorable
consideration by the Supt.

J.B. This appears to be a case for 9/11. favorable consideration. The man evidently got into difficulties owing to his having been forced to become a trustee

Office Note.

The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that P. Theagaraya Mudally, Foreman of the Printing Department, applied for the benefit of the Insolvent act on the 26th October 1892, and was declared an insolvent on the 21st August 1893 and ordered to pay Rs. 5 a month for the benefit of his creditors, as will be seen from the papers herewith forwarded. He was permitted under the existing orders of Government to continue to work in the office and has drawn his full salary.

2. P. Theagaraya Mudali was entertained in the Govt. Press on Rs. 60 per mensem as foreman of the Binding Dept. on the 4th December 1882, and since then he has been conducting his duties satisfactorily and is a hard working and attentive servant of Govt. His salary was attached in April 1872. From the papers submitted it will be observed that this is his second petition, his first petition having been filed in 1876 when he was not in Government service.

3. It is considered that the cause of his insolvency is not extravagance. He was trustee to some property and in a suit in which he was one of four defendants, he was ordered to pay the costs of the suit. His salary was attached for these costs and in consequence of this loss of salary and of the possible further pecuniary difficulties caused by this attachment, he had obtained the relief of the court for a reduction in the amount of payment to be made monthly, and has been ordered to pay in direct to the court $8 monthly. The undersigned therefore submits his case to the favorable consideration of Government and solicits that he may be reinstated to his appointment.

4. The insolvent's second petition, schedule balance sheet, and the order of the court are submitted for reference.
