To the Honourable
The Chief Secretary
Madras.

During the visit of Surgeon Major Comins, Protector at Calcutta, last year I exposed to him my situation, which he could scarcely credit, and which he promised to mention in his Report.

The fact is that I receive no remuneration whatever for the work I have to do in connection with the Indian Immigration, and my object now is to request you to be good enough to place my most respectful application for a reasonable allowance before the Government.

The following is an extract from a letter addressed by the Indian Government to Viscount Cross in December 1888.

In

In conclusion we would observe that we recognize the difficult and disagreeable duties which Her Majesty's Consuls are called upon to perform in connection with the protection of our Indian subjects in the French Colonies, and while acknowledging the great assistance they have already rendered, we deem it expedient to add that this assistance will be all the more requisite now that emigration to the French Colonies of Réunion, Martinique and Guadeloupe has been finally prohibited.

P.P. Hutchins W.M. Barbour

I may add that my duty towards David Ayatoni has placed me in a very disagreeable position vis-à-vis Mr. Pauvert and several of his friends in the planting planting interest, who espoused his cause.

A petition from planters has just been presented to the local General Council, praying for the re-establishment of the Immigration.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
James Japp
Vice Consul
