

ORDINARY, MS.

Public DEPARTMENT.

G.O., DATED 24-11-93.

No. 952

INDEXED.

When given for copying. 24/11.

[Despatch Abstract.]

Seeing no reason to supply to A. J. Jones copies of marriage certificates of Major A. Jones free of charge & directing the Registrar of the Diocese
& the Hainbury Chaplain to inform him of the respective amounts a receipt of which they will furnish the copies -

It is submitted that no reasons have been adduced by the petitioner why he should have the copies free of charge. As they are required for the furtherance of a lawsuit it is submitted that he should pay for them. The charges will be small. May the Registrar & the Barrister at Law be instructed to inform Mr. Jones (of Calcutta) of the amounts on receipt of which the required copies will be furnished.

There is not the slightest ground for the concession of free copies. A person who can afford lawyers can afford to pay for copies.
