South Cottage, Calicut
1 Nov 1893

My dear Sir Yours of the 28th ult. recd.

I am afraid I have been misinformed in the conversation I had with H.E. the Governor. After disabusing him of the idea if any that I had wilfully misrepresented matters to him in Tanjore, I wished to learn from him what my exact position was & when I may expect my next lift. H.E. then told me that my promotion was determined by some rules which thick down proportion of appointments. As these rules were not communicated to me, H.E. said he would kindly send me the rules on all papers connected with me for my perusal & return. I then represented to the hardships I experienced on account of frequency of transfers on the grounds of cost & inability to secure suitable residences at Dy Collectors' stations when H.E. told me that the transfers could not have been helped. This is all the conversation that took place.

The only G.O.s of this year communicated to me are on pay 1200

i) G.O. dated 18 Jan 93 No 27 Pub ii) G.O. " 25 May " 415 " iii) G.O. " 8 July 91 " 530 " iv) G.O. " 25 July 93 " 576 "
v) G.O. " 22 June " 4105 Mins

And if I accept my position in the Provincial service, I take no exception to any of the above G.O.s. What I think hard is my being debarred from promotion on account of rules the existence of which I was not aware of till last month of the text of which I have not yet seen.

I would beg H.E. the Governor's kind reference to para 2 of the second of the G.O.s above mentioned & to remind him that by knowledge two vacancies (Vizagapatnam & (inaudible)) have occurred since & that I believe some Head Assistantships are still vacant.

Thanking H.E. for the interest he takes in me I am
- 27 -
yours truly

Mamankandran Nong

My dear Sir

I enclose a further letter from R. Ramachandra Rao stating exactly what he wants to be supplied with. The Govt says will you kindly send him a copy of the G.O. containing the rules to which he refers Yours sincerely

C. Munro

FORT ST. GEORGE,

No. 15th 1801.

My dear Mr. Carter

I return Ramachandra

Now better & send a note to the Minister - He does not know what R Ramachandra now refers to nor how do I.

There is at the present speaking no objection to Ramachandra now being put in charge for the division - ~~needs~~ but he cannot be given any pay for this nor can he be anything else whilst nothing much change than a Deputy Col. of his present grade.

See papers in original of S O

645 dated 15th Aug.

The S.O. referred to by Schunke is perhaps.

At all times Remondet is now talking about wanting to have his position defined and to know his chances of promotion.
He now tells the Staff that off his head only that he is likely to receive until the Statutory above him have all been <sup>been</sup> provided for or defecting.

left out in the cold and there is a void in the front of the ship assigned to the Statutory. I wish I knew combined.
He is a Deputy Col. and can for long many years to come be nothing else. He knows all this perfectly well but likes to hope that by constant petitioning and worrying he may at least be put into the list of Statutories. This India is hardly likely to allow

Yours sincerely

Richard D. D.

Notes for the C.

The copy containing the rules to which M. R. S. R.
Ramachandra Rao refers is apparently L.P. of 3. August 1892, No 600.

I presume that the draft L.P. means that a copy of the L.P. of Aug 3. only will be given, not copies of any of the papers or statements printed therewith, for, with reference to para of Mr. Lyall's letter of May 29, it would appear that the statements or statements of persons would not be made public. And in this case, I think that only papers, i.e. of the L.P. of Aug 3. would be given.

Submitted to the Honble W.
Blair C. J. E. with reference to the draft L.P.

With reference to the allusion in his letter to para 2 of L.P. of 15. May 1892. No. 415, please see the letter in the original of L.P. of 15. 5. 92 No. 646. M. R. S. R. Ramachandra Rao claims to be entitled to a statement of the circumstances of his case. These considered that, as it was found that such apps. would bring him in no extra emoluments, the subject was dropped.

Perhaps it will be sufficient for the present to do as suggested by the P. B. (M. R. S. R. Ramachandra Rao is bound to come up again
