Please see §§ 106 & 107 of the C. S. R. which lay down the procedure as regards applications for pension from members of the Indian Civil Service.
The only article which appears to apply to a case like that of Sir Philip Hutchins who is shown on the list of Madras Civil Servants, is § 106 & under which his application for pension should be forwarded to His Govt. Sir P. Hutchins says that he has applied to be admitted to pension and his application is probably with the Govt. of India. It makes matters quite clear it is proposed to telegraph to Home, India " Will Govt. India pass orders admitting Sir Philip Hutchins to annuity or should this Govt do as vide § 106 & C. S. R. Please write reply "

If the reply is to the C.S. effect that the Govt. will 27- " pass orders the papers may, it is thought, be recorded
