any opinion as to the likelihood of the available transport being utilised in the manner indicated by Government as I have received no application for the loan of any transport."

2. It is impossible to give any opinion as to how far the Army Transport will be made use of by private persons, as the system has never yet been tried, but I think there is likelihood that it will be utilized in the manner indicated. Experiment is the only safe guide. After the rules are published we shall be able to form a better opinion.

SIR,

In reply to para 2 of Government order No. 812, Public, dated 24 November 1892, I have the honor to report that on requesting the Executive Commissariat officer at this station to favor me with his opinion on the subject he stated as below.

"The only transport that is at present available for the purpose consists of 30 H. T. Carts. On the arrival of the 19 Field Battery in February the following transport would be available 20 mules if let by the day, or if let by the month, and 20 army Transport bullock carts, no transport bullock or army Transport mule carts will be available for hire. I am unable to offer
