SIR,

herewith returned

I have the honor to state with reference to Public Current No 253 sent to me for remarks, that, in the circumstances pointed out by the Government of India, I concur with that Government's view that Mr Courran should continue to occupy his present position in regard to the emigrants from Reunion.

dated 23rd December 1893, that the French authorities would look with suspicion on the proposal.

3. Under these circumstances the Government of India as at present advised would prefer that Mr. Conran should continue to occupy his present anomalous position with regard to returned emigrants from Reunion until the negotiations relating to the renewal of Emigration to that Colony are in a more advanced state. I am however to enquire whether the Government of Madras concur in the above view and whether there is any objection to Mr. Conran's position remaining as proposed by the Government of India.

SIR,

No. 7297-93, dated 8th December 1893
and enclosure.

I am directed to forward copy of a letter and of its enclosure received from the Government of Mauritius relating to the Status of the Emigration Agent for Mauritius at Madras in dealing with Emigrants returning from the French Colony of Reunion and to communicate the following remarks.

2. It appears to the Government of India that if it were suggested to the French Government that Mr. Conran should be temporarily made Agent for Reunion at Madras it would scarcely be possible to get the arrangement finally settled for a year at least, as many officers have to be consulted and the appointment would rest with the Government of the French Republic. Even a request for an informal acknowledgment of Mr. Conran's position by the Reunion Government could scarcely be answered for a considerable length of time. And in either case it appears possible from the Consul General's letter of the 22nd August 1893, forwarded with Sir E. Buck's letter No. 7499

His Excellency the Governor.

Letter from the Colonial Secretary, Mauritius, to the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department, No. 7297-93 dated 8th December 1893.

I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to transmit the enclosed copy of a letter from the Emigration Agent for Mauritius at Madras, and to request that you will be good enough to bring to the notice of the Government of India the importance of the matter therein referred to.

Letter from the Mauritius Emigration Agent, Madras, to the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, Mauritius, dated the 18th October 1893.

With reference to the fact that this Agency has already had to receive and dispose of two batches of return Emigrants from Reunion, and is likely to have to deal with further batches of such Emigrants, I have the honor to bring to your notice, that as I occupy no official Status in regard to that Colony I should be in anomalous position if the local authorities questioned me concerning these Emigrants and their connections in the Colony. As a means of meeting this, I would suggest that I might be formally invested with some authority to directly represent the Reunion Government at Madras, so as to enable me, on its behalf to reply officially. The matter seems to be one of importance, and I therefore beg to submit it for the orders of
