Dated Camp Udayagiri 26th January 1894.

Sir,

I have the honor to ask that Government may approve of the purchase by me of a pony from a native residing in this District, which I bought under the following circumstances.

Last month when I was at Russell-Konda one of my ponies was attacked by "Kumri" and has since died. I was in urgent need of an animal to replace him and accordingly bought a Country breed pony for Rs 300 from a Mussulman hide merchant who has a place of business at Russell-Konda and who deals in the malakhs across our frontier. I paid the full price the man asked and I believe it to be a fair price. The pony had been previously offered to another officer in the District who refused to give so much.

I have the honor to be

Yours most ^{Sr} obedt Servt

C. J. Weir
